(1914-1969)

Sunset and the evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

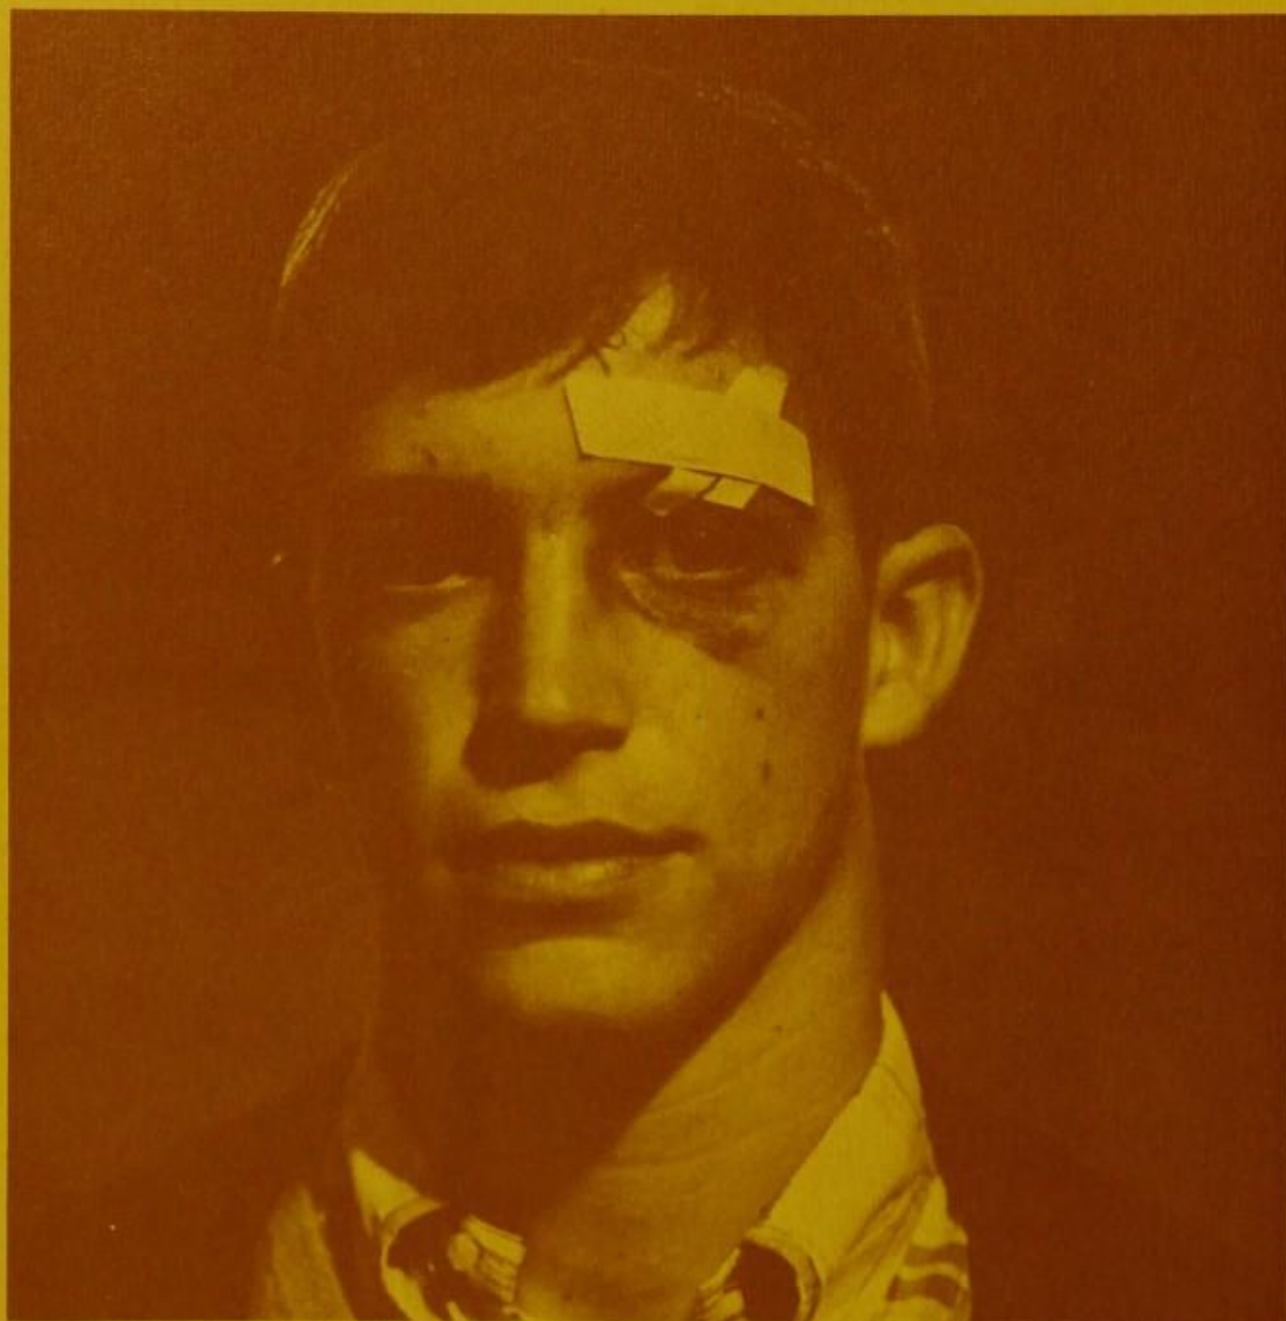

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Youth of today face problems, but their hearts are really happy. With joy and laughter or grief and pain they still find time to enjoy the fun of being young. If the years at Southwest have in some way helped this feeling of contentment, then they have been well spent for everyone involved. To the youth at Southwest these pages are presented, as they are filled with all the treasures and memories of the young.

We also dedicate these moments of our fleeting youth to those who are no longer young, but who will remain so in their youthful spirit. May the faces of contentment shown in this yearbook always remind those who see them that youth is not of age, but of the mind.

Southwest Miami Royal Lancer Marching Band

The theme of the 1968 Homecoming festivities is Mission: Possible. Halls are filled with signs carrying out the theme in purple and white. On color day large purple bows are worn by all spirited Southwest students. Juniors and Seniors have dress-up days, and Sophomores have a day to wear tags proclaiming that they are Sophomores. The longest pep rally of the year is held.

Eagle's Fling involves both the crowning of Homecoming Queen, Carrie Cleland, and the Ugly Legs Contest for Senior boys. The Homecoming Dance is held at the Pan Air Recreation Club. Music is provided by The Clefts of Lavender Hill and The Shags. Decorations are secret weapons, further carrying out the theme of Mission: Possible.

Super Seniors Are Superlatives

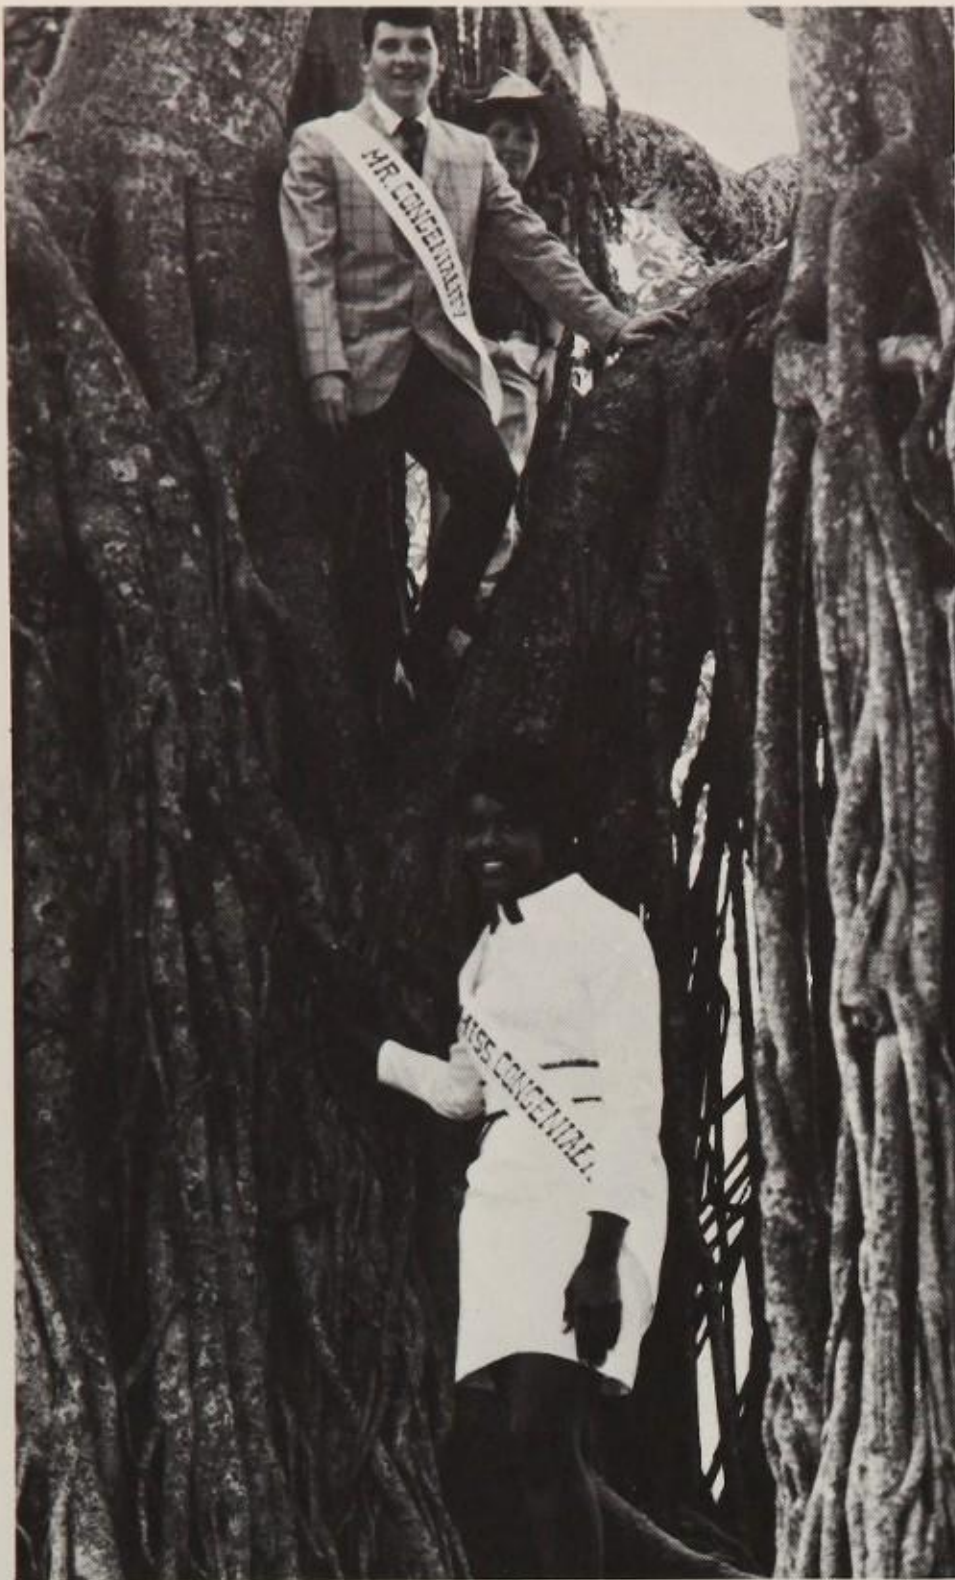

Superlatives are selected by the seniors as the outstanding members of their class of 900. These "super" seniors are announced at a special assembly on senior dress-up day. The stage band adds just the right touch of excitement. Tension mounts as the envelopes are opened and the winners are announced. Tears flow quietly as happy moments are remembered in a wonderful senior year.

Play Productions Bring out the Crowds

Southwest's Drama Department begins a busy and exciting year by performing "The Miracle Worker" on November 15 and 16 after many long weeks of tedious rehearsal. Mr. Campbell's Wood Shop II class builds the set, and new lighting and sound effects are put to use in the play. The audience thoroughly enjoys the play, giving each performance a standing ovation. The play is also performed at Miami Springs Junior High and the University of Miami Drama Festival.

Eagle's Fling is also under the direction of Mr. James Randolph. Mr. Randolph, with the drama department, produces three studio plays which are performed in April. Mr. Ames, Mr. Randolph's intern, directs three plays at Southwest. They are: "The Brick and the Rose", "The Slave with Two Faces", and "The Sandbox." The plays are an all Drama Department productions.

Debbie Knopman, as Anne Sullivan, receives a gift from her students.

Pam Butterbrodt, as Anne Sullivan, restrains Helen Keller, played by Ivy Cream.

The Keller family; Joanne Greenlee, Linda Milone, Debbie Knopman, Craig McCall, Sandy Marshall, Russ Martin; sit down to dinner.

Helen Keller, played by Ivy Cream, learns to sew.

Craig McCall, Russ Martin, and Becky Mallory discuss the play after the performance at CTA Towers.

Debbi Ricci helps to set up for the plays performed at CTA Towers.

Cheerleaders Spark Spirit

Eleven members of the varsity cheerleading squad have an active year. To raise money they hold bake sales, car-washes, sock hops; and sell jinx dolls and programs. The cheerleading sponsors, Mrs. Allen and Mr. Christie help the Booster Club with the programs at the games.

The cheerleaders hold a breakfast for the football players after the Columbus game, and announce their sweetheart at a Christmas party. They lead in the fight to win the Dade County school spirit contest and win a cannon and a trophy for the school.

Another boost for school spirit is given when the cheerleaders deliver letters to the football players before the Gables game. A clinic is held during March for girls trying out for cheerleading.

Majorettes Highlight Marching Band

Smiles are important during halftime.

Southwest Majorettes enlighten the 1968-69 season as they twirl in their purple and white sequined uniforms. Besides the football games and pep rallies, the six majorettes and soloist participate in the Orange Bowl Parade, Orange Bowl Game, Fireworks Festival, and the Pro Play-off.

Along with these activities, they participate with the band in the District Marching Contest.

Tricia Whittemore is instructor for the group and Diane Woods twirls as soloist. Lazelle Emminizer serves as First Lieutenant, and Debbie Kemper as Second Lieutenant.

It comes each month informing us on all the varied activities
of the complex society—
that is Southwest.
And what would we do
without Mrs. Staats?
Who makes the Lancer
what it is,
a prize-winning publication,
a winner of high awards,
and a fine newspaper.
And what would we do
without the staff?
Who work unfailingly,
seek out the news,
and bring it to us,
the students.

Stephanie Czerwinski—proofreading, Harriet Huss—editor, Jeff Daiell—promotion.

We are the creative writers of Mrs. Staats' fourth period creative writing class. Each year we produce the Shining Wings Anthology. The little book is a collection of poetry, short stories, plays, and essays and gives a sample of the literary talent here at Southwest.

Mrs. Staats is an enthusiastic sponsor.

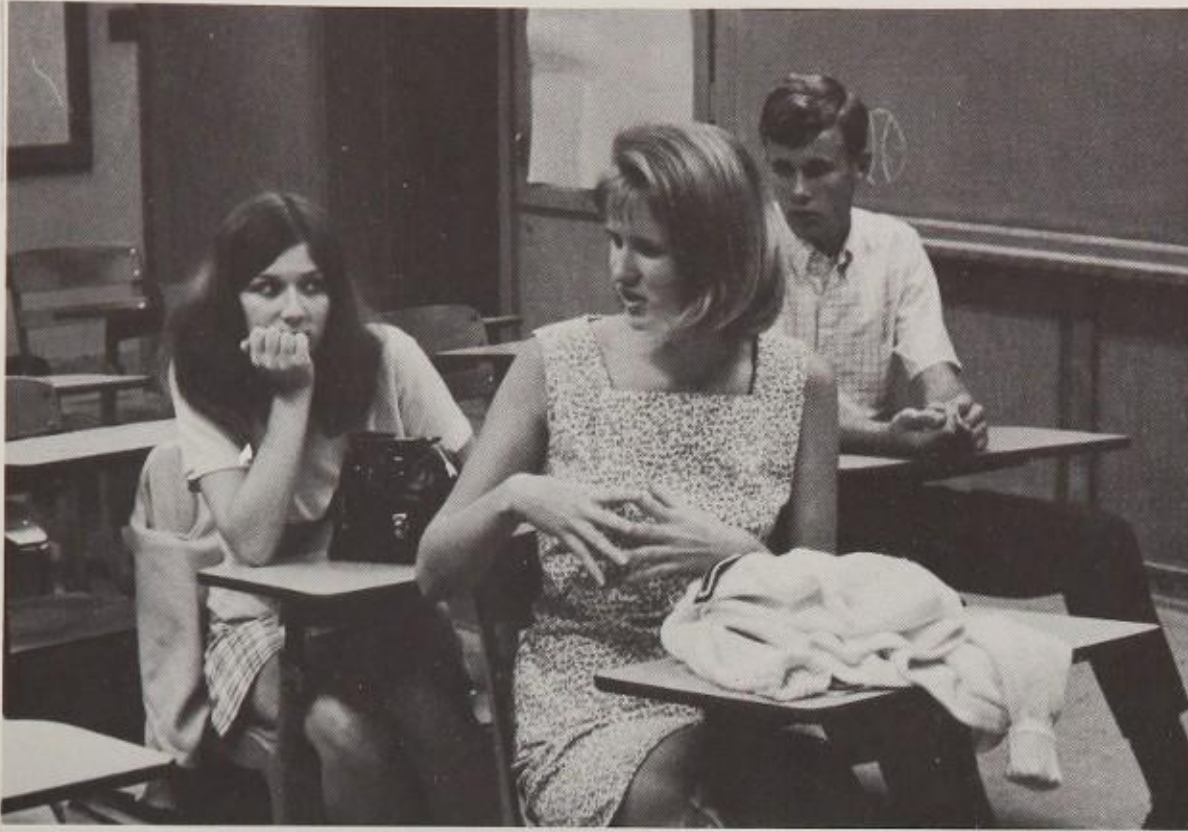

Sharon Lee and Brenda Chappel daydream.

Karen Pierce—Chairman of promotion, Joan Johnson—typing.

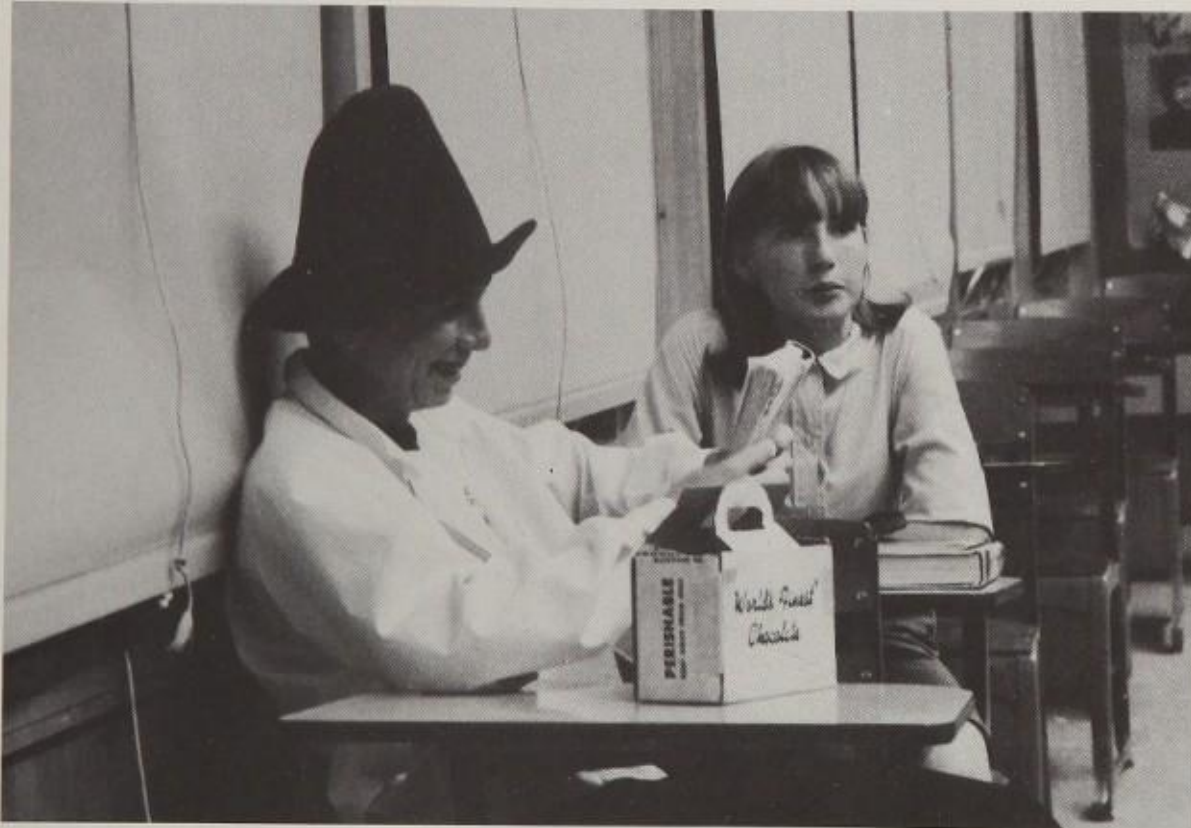

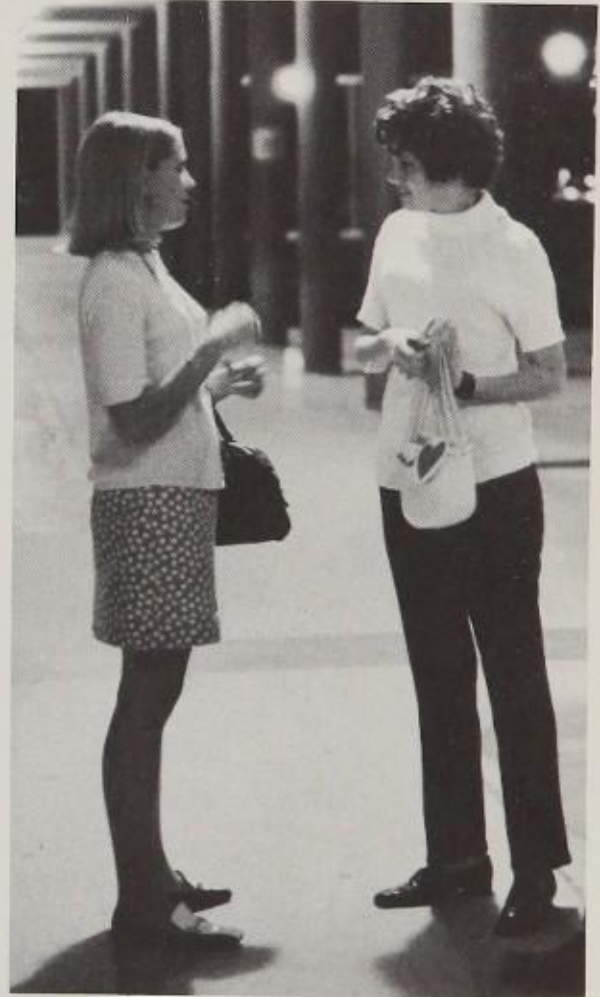

Student Action Gets Around

Maggie Alter, Sue Nylander, and Bill Todd discuss a new project.

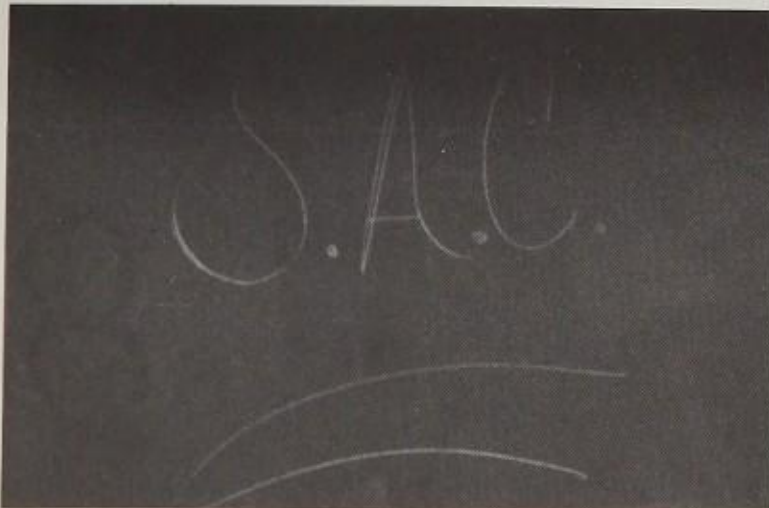

Students wanting to get things done join Student Action. In May they hold their annual Coffee House where the talented of Southwest play folk music and perform short skits and monologues. Their motto is "we get around" and they do.

Anne Baker chats with Daryll Leonard.

Karol Wolfe is in hysterics over Mark Ellison's funny hat.

The fantastic Student Action initials are plastered on blackboards.

The Royal Lancer Band—Purple Pride

The band marches in exciting half-time shows
and in colorful parades.
Drums beat, and purple and white flash across green fields.
Led by the high-stepping drum majors, Chuck Getter and Steve Koraly,
and band captain Bill Casale,
they enter into contests
and bring home honors
to Southwest;
“Superior” and “Excellent”.
Mr. Baker is proud.
We are too.

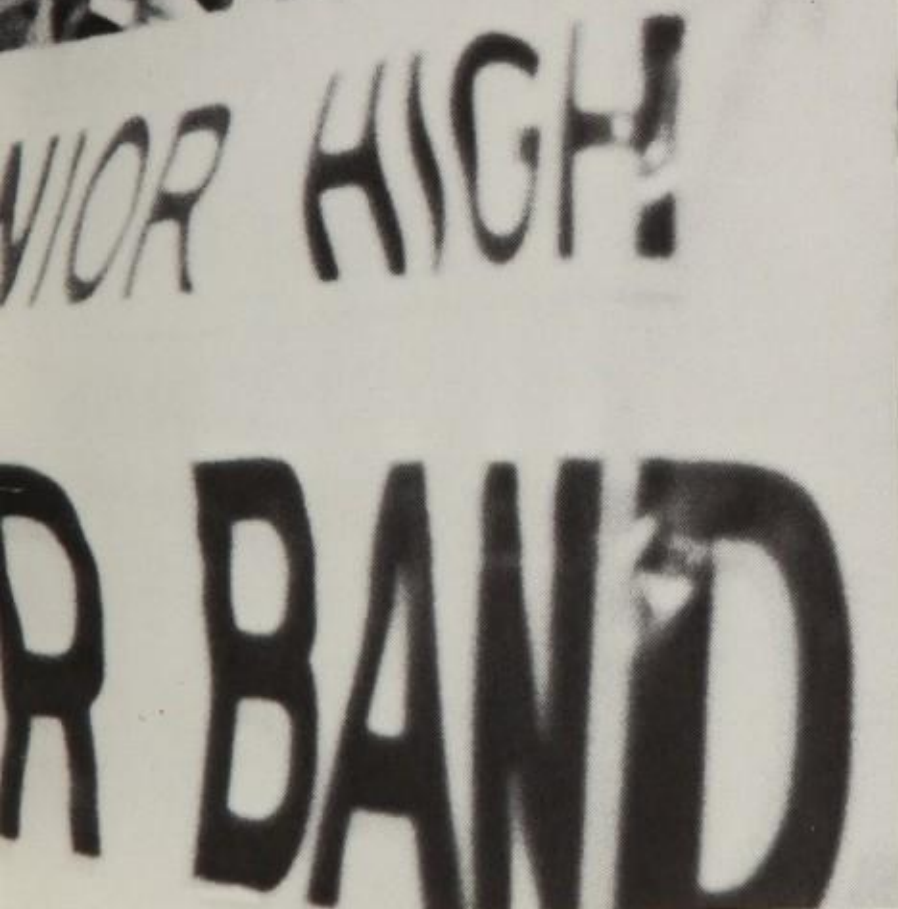

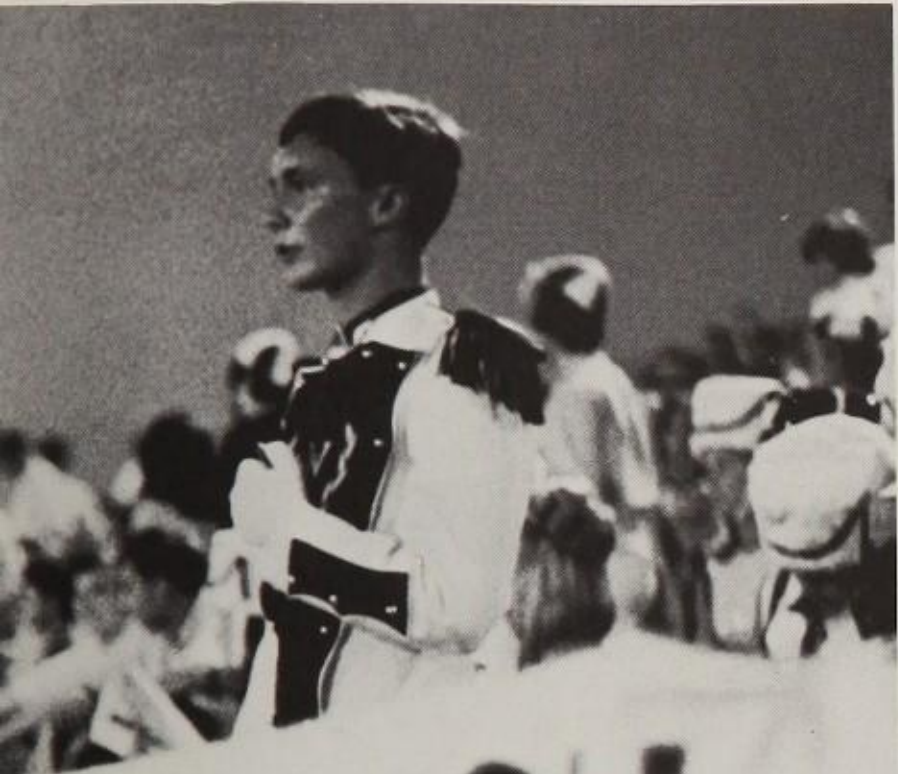

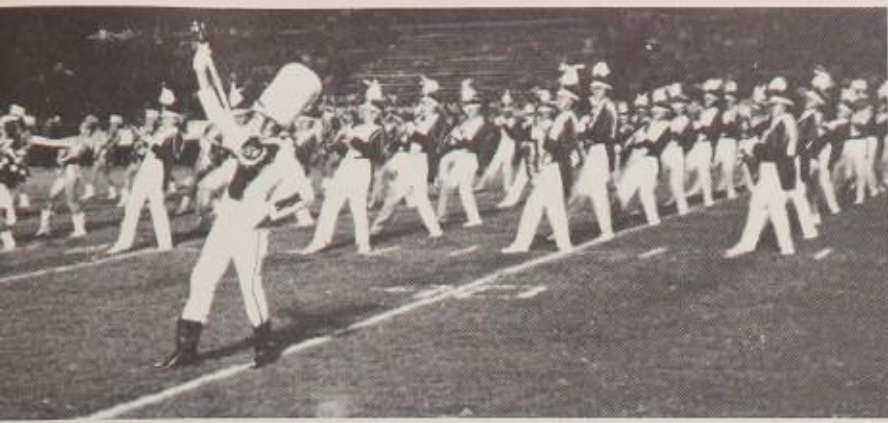

Cathy Getter enjoys being in the band.

The banner is displayed at all football games.

Straight lines and flashing instruments.

"Riff Riders" is a favorite.

Mr. Baker calls instructions.

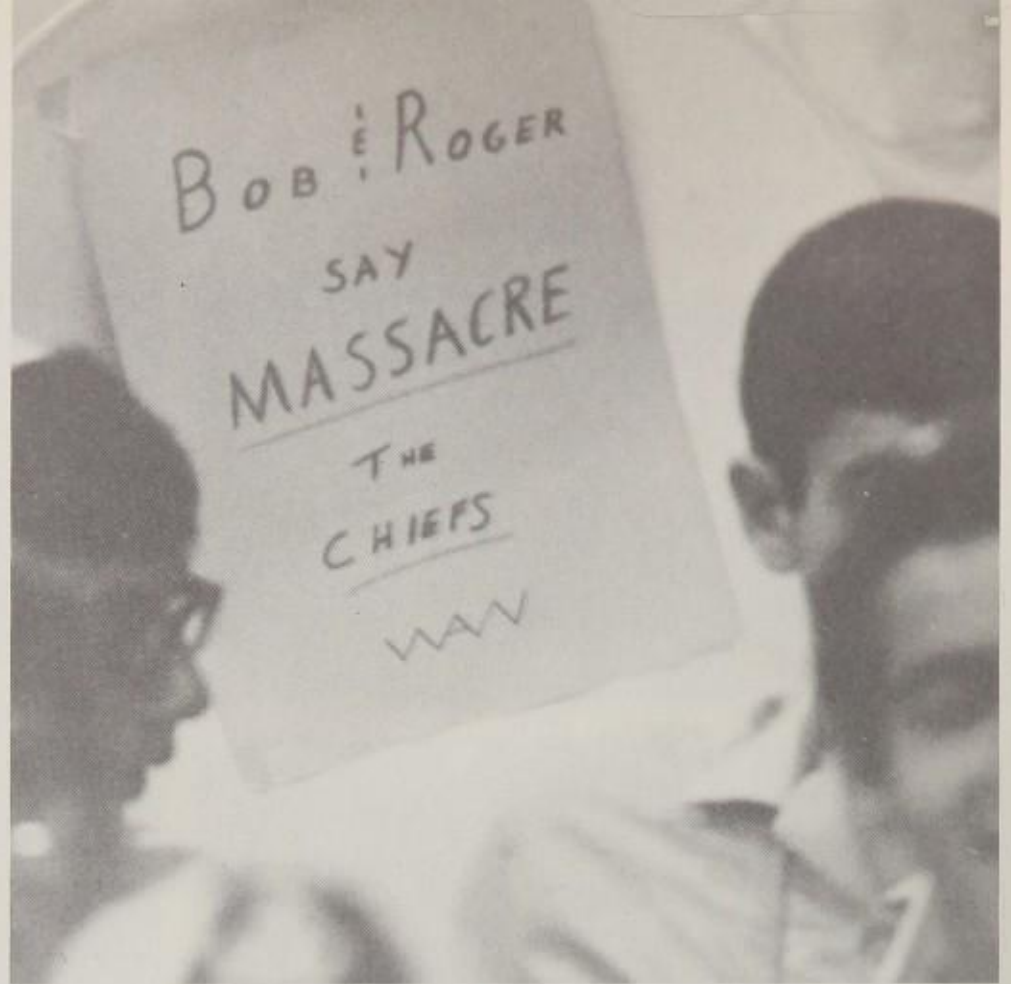

Steve Koraly is the little drum major with the big hat.

The band exemplifies the spirit at S.W.

Band members practice long hours after school.

The steady cadence of the drums keeps hearts beating.

The tuba section is an integral part of the marching unit.

Chuck Getter, Drum Major, is anxious to begin.

Band members watch and wait in the darkness till time to go on.

Tears stream as Betty Gavelek, Flower Girl, sings her last Alma Mater.

Performing in half-time shows is an exciting experience.

Beautiful Music Is the S.W. Orchestra

Karen Anderson practices the violin.

Alan Hudson tunes up before a concert.

Debbie Marshall takes a break during an orchestra performance.

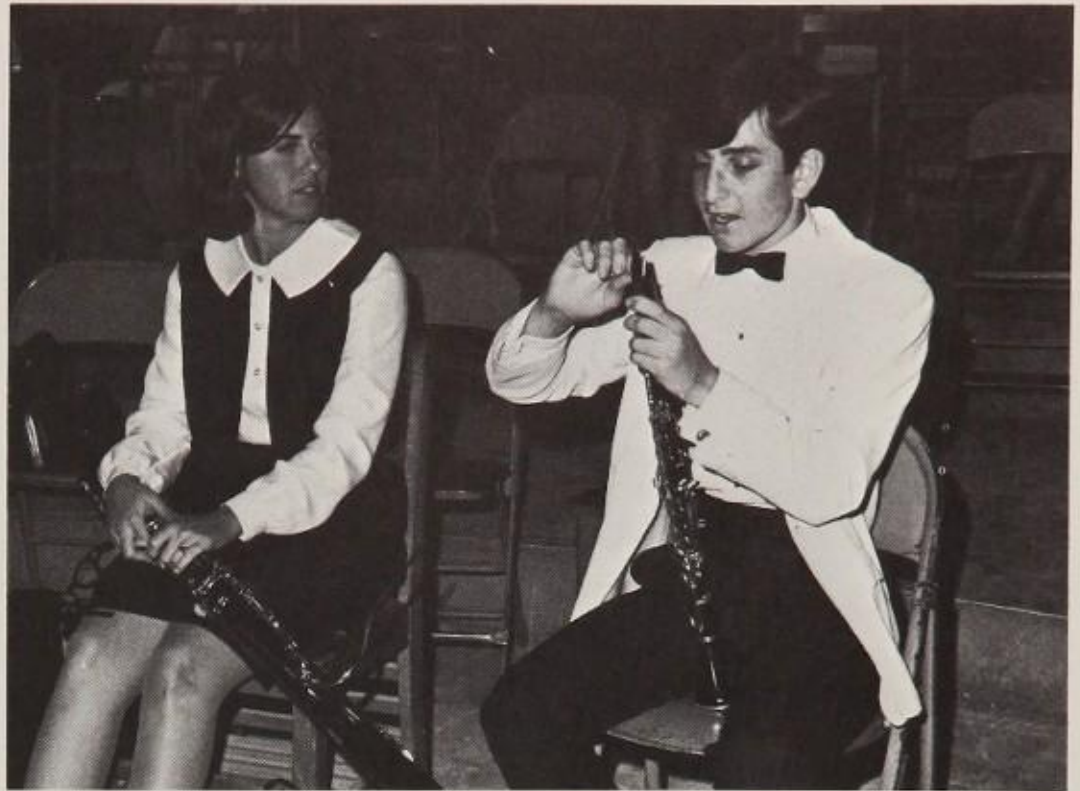

The orchestra is more than boys in white jackets and girls in black skirts plus instruments. It is a group of fine musicians conducted by Mr. Bobo and presided over by Rod Glaubman, who have been not only number one in the state for the past four years, but have gained the reputation of one of the top orchestras in the Southern United States. Included in their full schedule are performances for charity organizations and three school concerts during the year. They play also for the "Messiah", and the "Singing Christmas Tree". In April they pack up everything from trombones to xylophones and head for Daytona Beach where they compete and return with Straight Superior. It never fails.

Arthur Fiedler conducts the SW orchestra.

Judy Newman and Paul Kramer inspect their instruments.

The orchestra prepares to rehearse.

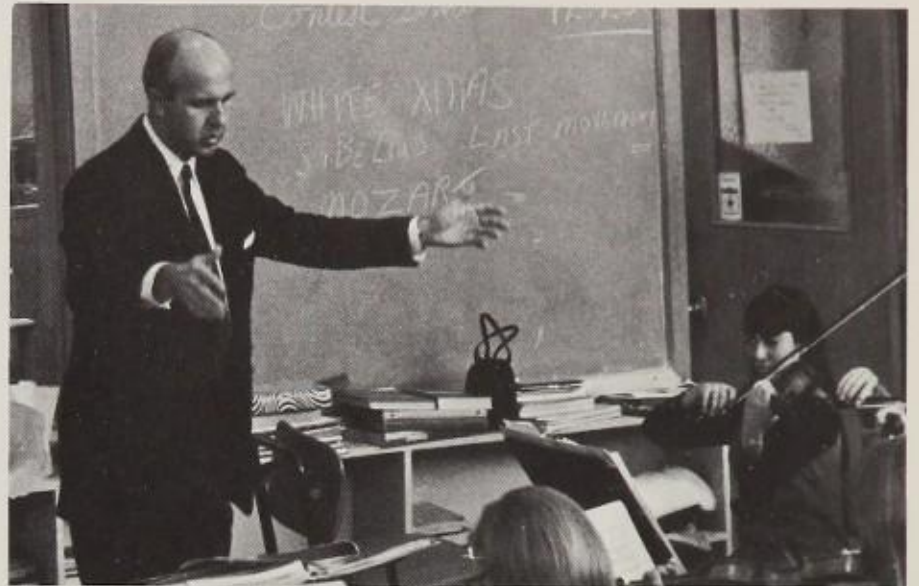

Steve Parsons concentrates on his music.

French Horn

Mr. Bobo conducts with flourish.

Jack Morris slides the trombone.

Nancy Bram grins as she waits her turn.

Becky Ponitzman plays for both band and orchestra.

Debbie Schwartz, Steve Parsons, and Mark Saslow are in the percussion section.

Gary Fagin fiddles away.

Billy Aste laughs.

Marty Forster plays the organ.

Concert Chorus Reaches for Excellence

The Concert Chorus sings and people listen.
At Christmas they perform
in the "Singing Christmas Tree",
a great honor for Southwest.
They sing the Messiah.
Their voices
echo in a church
and people are filled with joy.
The chorus sings;
boy and girl,
soprano and alto,
loud and soft,
blended together by the energy of Mr. Johnson who knows them not as names
but as voices.
A hundred voices dissolve into one mighty beautiful sound.

Gary Parker, Charlie Simmons, and Ray Cline form a trio.

Chorus members sing carols in the halls at Christmas.

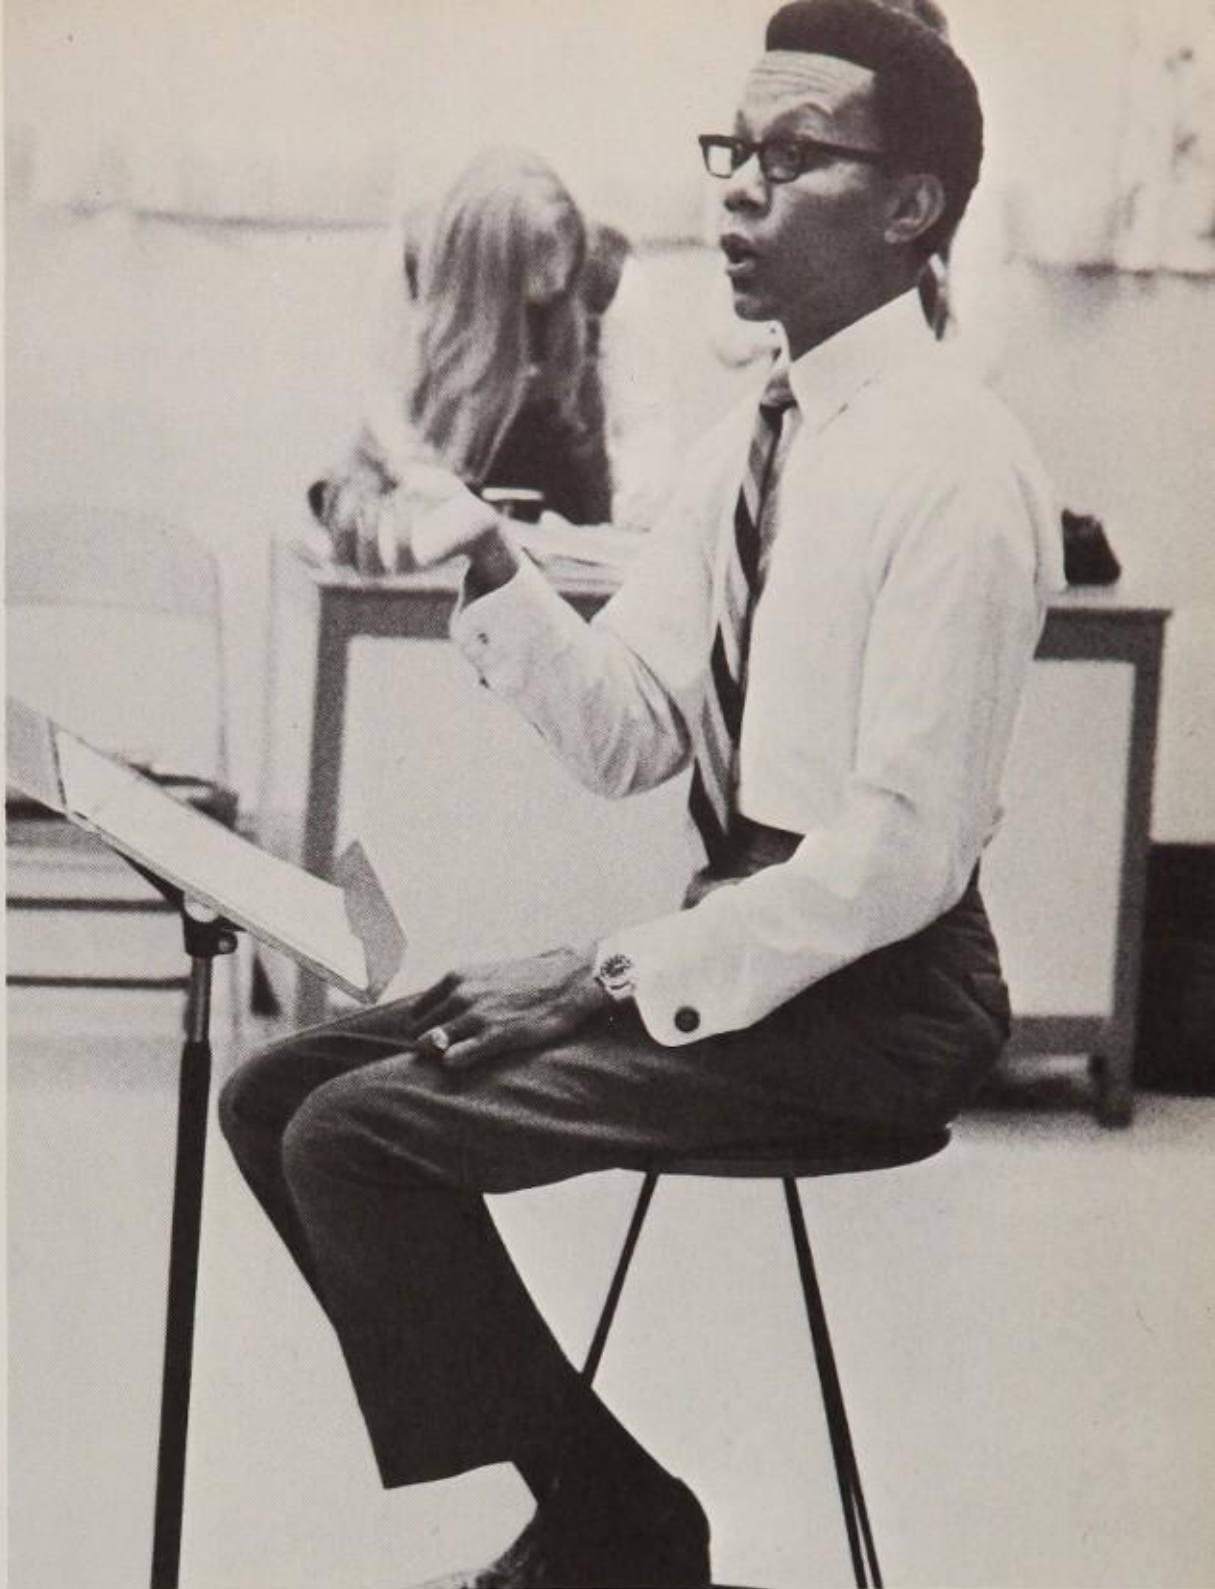

Patty Hunt sounds the chord.

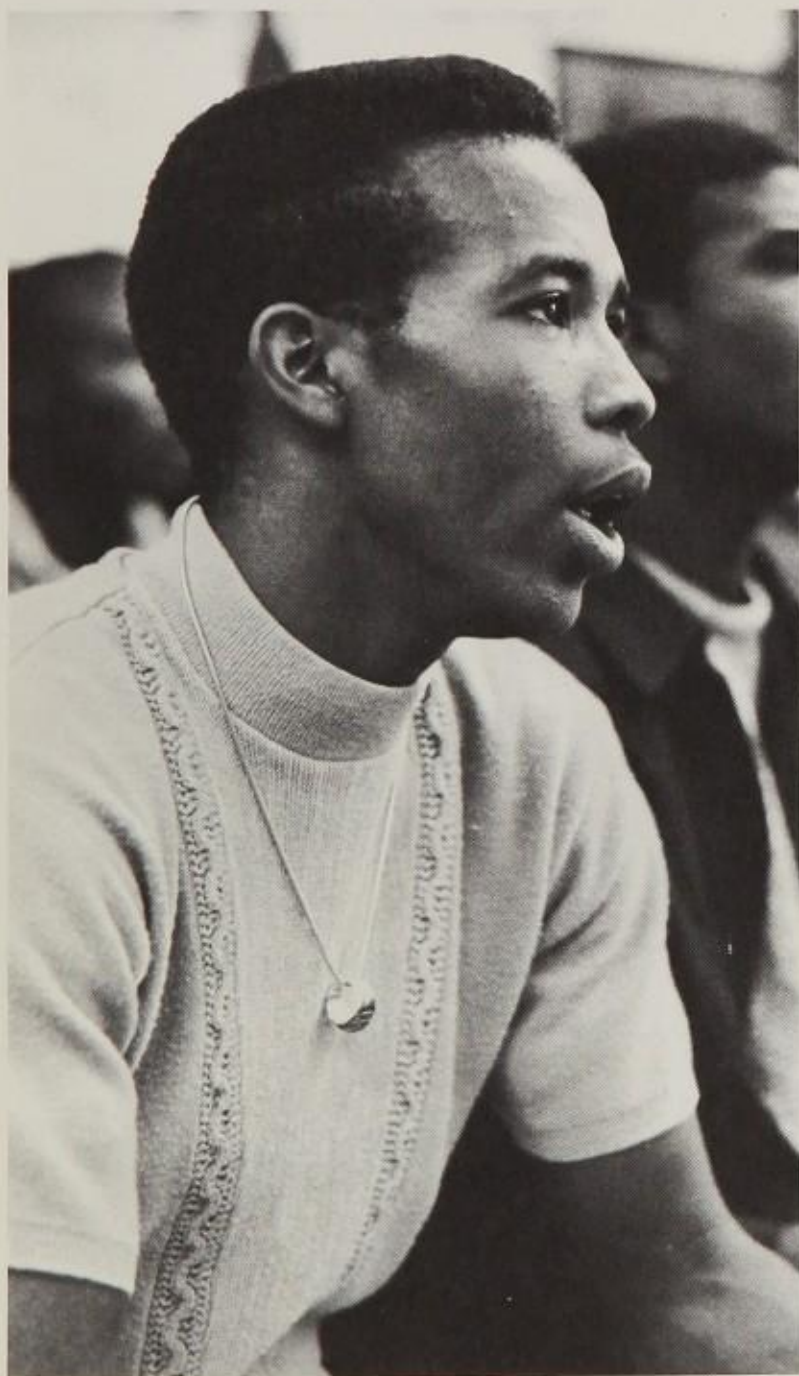

Larry Crossley yucks it up.

Once again the "Messiah" is performed.

Mr. Johnson is the inspiring force behind the chorus.

Tony MacDonald adds the "soul sound".

Girls' Chorus Performs for the Community

The Girls' Chorus performs for an assembly.

The Girls' Chorus sings throughout the year at a variety of functions. They sing:
at Southwest's first orchestra concert,
for the Multiple Sclerosis Banquet,
at St. Hugh's Catholic School, and on U.N. Day at the S. W. Assembly and at the program at the South Miami City Hall.

Officers are: Karen Benson, Janet Cooley, Pat Gillian, Debbie Bowen, Maureen Kennedy, and Sue Wolfe.

The girls rehearse long hours.

Boys' Chorus—Best in Dade

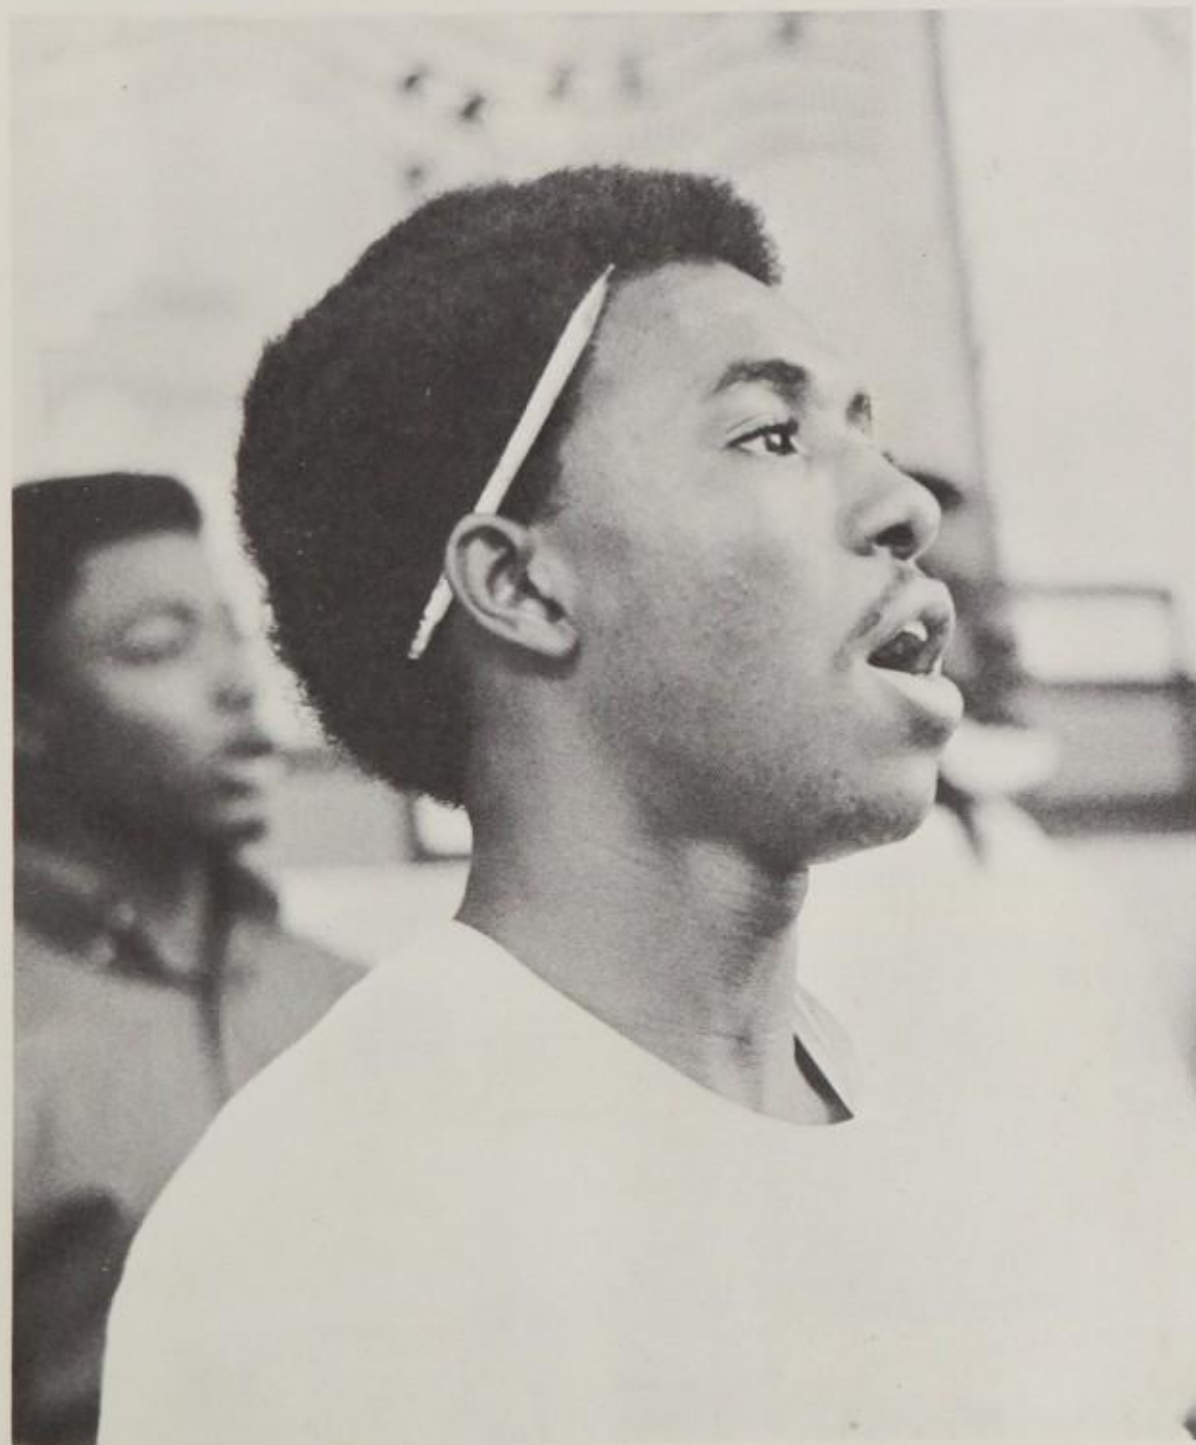

It is surprising who can be found in chorus.

Devilish grins
and angel voices.
The Boys Chorus,
led by Ron Williamson,
brings together
all types.
They perform at various junior high schools in the area and at the Chorus Concert in March,
forming into the best
boys choral group
in Dade County.

Even Danny Williams pays attention.

Jerry Hood dutifully sings.

Thanes—The Distinguished Gentlemen

Thanes beats Little Sisters 6—0.

Thanes' meetings are full of laughter.

It starts when Larry Saffer begins the bull session and never ends.

Chuck Farkas sits high on his stool and talks of doing the can-can in the Eagles Fling and of the dangerous project of painting the flagpole.

Ideas for raising money vary from jumping out of airplanes to going to the Flea Market.

Trying to keep order is useless.

Para Medics Visit Hospitals

Para Med was for any student with an interest in a medical career. They visited a mental hospital, Jackson Memorial, the Heart Institute, and donated a medical dictionary to the Southwest library.

Secretary—Barbara Kowalski.

Roger Stern, president, talks of field trips and fund-raising projects.

Lynn Weiss is actively interested in medicine.

Jets Take Off to a Great Year

Sylvia Dion seems involved in listening.

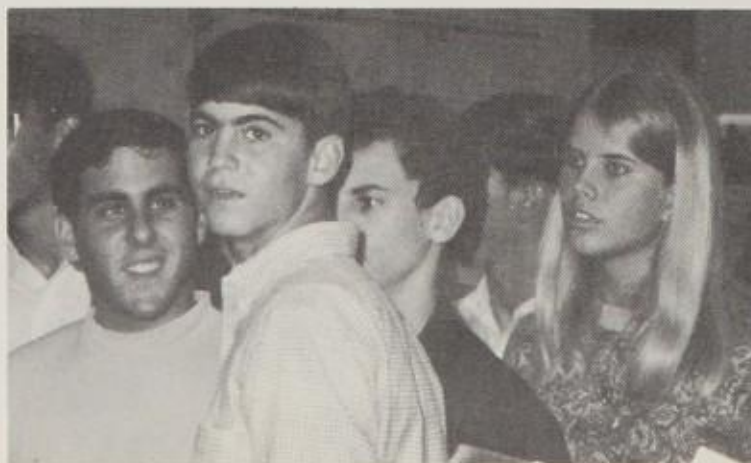

The technically-minded students in the Junior Engineering Technical Society take field trips to such places as Connelly, Inc. and the F.A.A. This spring they visit Cape Kennedy and enter the exciting world of space exploration. Jets: girls and boys with goals and ambitions, looking for a future in science.

Paul Kramer, president, tells of field trip plans.

Mr. Connelly explains drafting procedures.

Alan Brown keeps things interesting.

Mr. Smeisser, sponsor, watches quietly.

Future Teachers Plan for Tomorrow

FTA Showcase

The Future Teachers of America show their appreciation for the teachers of today with a shiny apple. They guide distraught parents to the appropriate rooms on back-to-school night and stimulate interest in their profession by making posters and gaily decorating the showcase during National Education Week. F.T.A. members are getting a head start today preparing for tomorrow.

Members distribute shiny apples to teachers.

At meetings everyone listens quietly to Mr. Ward, sponsor.

Gwen Corker is Vice-President.

Future Homemakers Sew Pajamas

"We are the Future Homemakers of America,
We face the future with warm courage and high hopes".
The talented members of the F.H.A. made pajamas for patients at Variety Children's Hospital and served at the Evaluation Banquet for teachers and evaluators. They sold jinx dolls during football season and roses in February. They ended the year with a banquet and a feeling of satisfaction that comes from learning and accomplishment. "For we are the builders of homes Homes where truth and love and security will be realities not dreams."

Judy Thomas serves as president.

Pat Fullerton smiles.

Roses are for Valentines.

Karen Frey, secretary, and Mrs. Knesel, sponsor, seem to enjoy their work.

Members stay after school working on pajamas.

CBE and DE Seek Employment for Students

As part of the Distributive Education Program, Hal Greenlee works at a gas station.

Members of the Cooperative Business Education and the Distributive Education programs attend classes in the morning and work part-time in the afternoon. They have the chance to not only get on-the-job experience but to develop skills dealing with business and marketing. These are the ones who work.

Missy Martin is secretary for a lawyer.

VICA Gives a Night of Smiles and Laughter

U.N. Club Promotes Peace and Understanding

Some of the winners in the poster contest.

The United Nations Club sponsored a poster contest, held an assembly on U.N. Day, October 24, and collected money for UNICEF around Halloween. And then came the biggest project of all, the model assembly held at Southwest, where students had the exciting opportunity of participation, and of seeing the United Nations at work.

Daryl Leonard is an enthusiastic member.

Mrs. Crabtree, sponsor, reacts to a new suggestion.

Bill Todd, president, makes plans for U.N. Day.

G.A.A. Plans Camping Trip

The girls in the Girl's Athletic Association combine fun with sports. They sell T-shirts to earn money for their annual camping trip in April. And socially they have a beach party and a co-ed play night in the gym. They learn the value of team co-operation and earn Third-Place County in volleyball and second place at the track sportsday. They also hold a banquet when the year is done and the games are won.

Karen Squires makes a shot.

President Mo Saunders dribbles while Miss Bassett instructs.

Sue Wolfe and Lynn Hanrahan learn basketball techniques.

Elaine Fernandez sets up for the winning volleyball team.

Varsity Club Shows Spirit and Service

Larry Saffer, president, enjoys the Varsity Club Barbecue.

These are the ones who fight for Southwest

It's That Time Again!

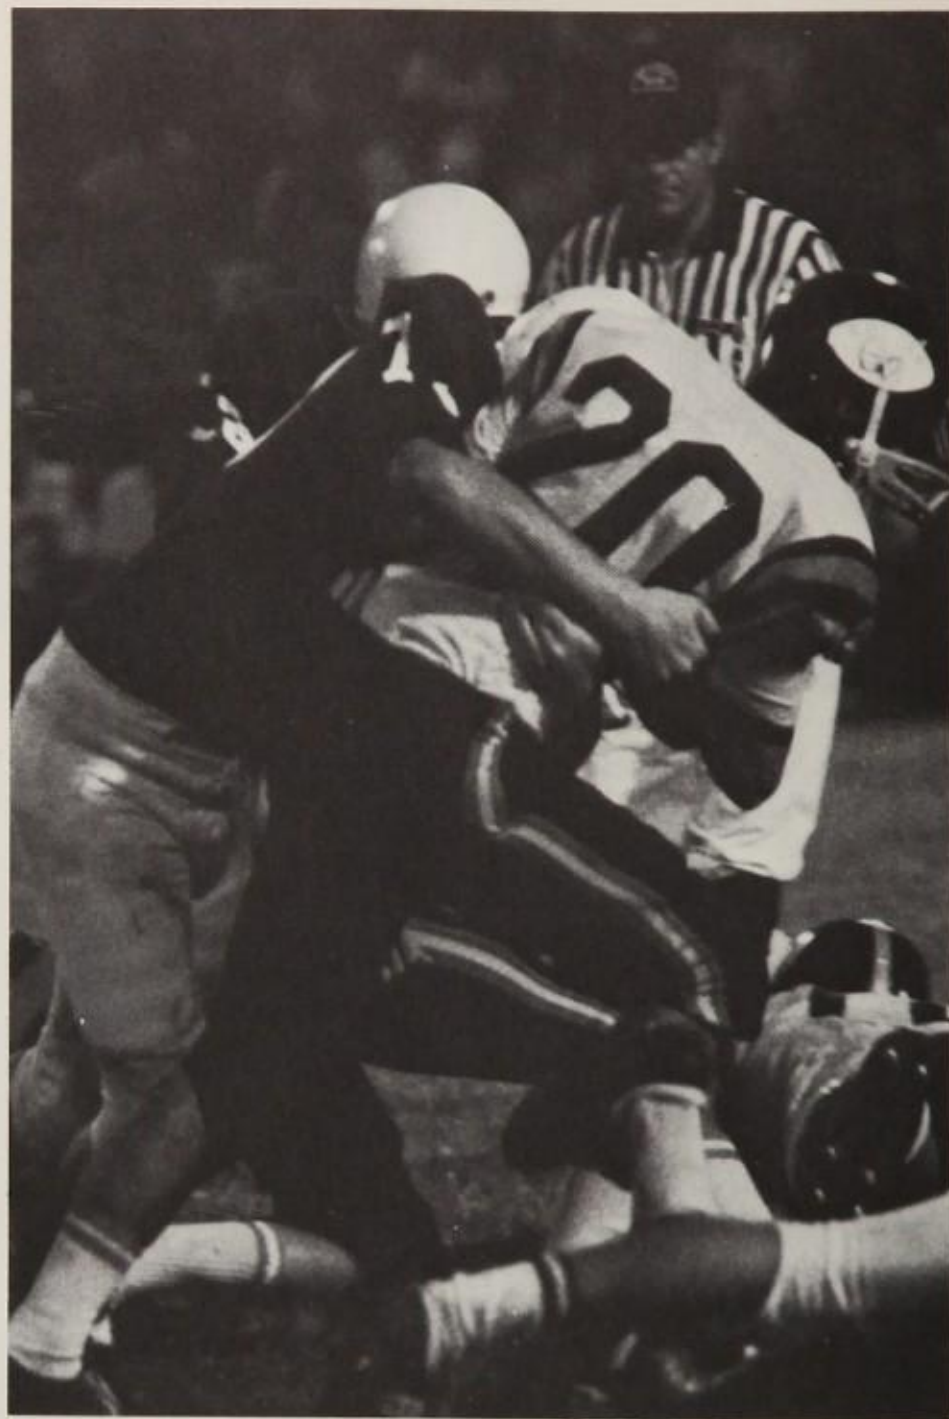

Our mighty Eagles kicked open the season on September 20, by clawing the Carol City Chiefs. Quarterback, Tommy McPherson completed four passing attempts, and threw a thirteen yard pass to Brad Mack, who scored the first touchdown. Halfback Jim Mack, made the second touchdown, when he ran the remaining two yards. The Chiefs were finally scalped following Ray Hoadley's interception and sixty-five yard run, which completed the game with a score of 20—6.

In the second victory, when the Eagles played the Key West Conchs, the shout of "We're Number One" arose from the Southwest crowd! Whit Beckman received a scoring strike from Tommy McPherson, who previously scored the first two touchdowns. Jim Mack also scored by completing a thirty-four yard run. Herb Benedict and Alan Howard, both defensive ends, along with Jim Major and Allen Kaplan were given credit for their fine line play. Miami News named Alan Howard All City AM Star for the week of September 23. Earl Swindle intercepted a Key West drive on Southwest's one yard line. Other fine plays were made by Tony Cortez, Chuck Corson and John Hyde. The Conchs were washed out by the final score 27—0.

Killian offense gains yardage the hard way.

The Eagles met their first defeat in the third game of the season on the field of Central Stadium where they met the Killian Cougars. The Eagles attained one more first down than the Cougars and managed to hold their own on the rushing and the passing. One Hundred and eleven yards were rushed by the Eagles and they earned credit for playing an outstanding offensive game, considering the blocking received. Tommy McPherson passed 162 yards during the game. This defeat evened the record between Southwest and Killian at one to one.

Southwest offense aims Eagle Eye at their opposition.

Our third victory was accomplished on October 10. In the second half, with Palmetto leading, Cal Collins brought the Eagles back to life. In the final two minutes of the game Earl Swindle blocked Palmetto's Panthers extra point attempt. Later Swindle intercepted a pass on the Panther's final drive, leaving the score at 13—12. Coach Jupin stated that if the Eagles cut down on the little mistakes, they are capable of playing top notch football.

Southwest Defense puts load on Springs

Saturday, October 19, Miami Beach defeated Southwest for the first time in the history of the school with a final score of 6 to 9. Thursday, October 25, Southwest met Miami High for the first time at Central Stadium. The three thousand viewers saw Don Perry, who was substituting for Tommy McPherson, try to overcome the Stingerees.

"Every time we had a drive going something happened," Coach Gene Jupin stated. Two penalties were called against the Eagles and their passing was limited to 47 yards. Eric Barrie managed to score on a one yard slant in the last remaining minute of the game, leaving the defeat at 7 to 14. Mike Berkow was given credit for adding the extra point.

Eagle Power

Every year the Eagles and the Rams compete for the trophy which was purchased by the Student Councils of both schools. It took the Rams five years to gain possession of the trophy, when they defeated Southwest for the first time on Thursday, October 31, leaving the score at 6—27.

"The team moved the ball well between our 20 yard line and their 20 yard line," said Coach Charles Yanda, offensive backfield coach. He also added that the team could not push it over when they got to the twenty yard line. McPherson threw for 61 yards and the back-field ran for 128 yards. Jim Mack led the ground gainers with 59 yards.

The eighth game of the season was played on November 7, against the Hawks of Miami Springs. Larry Saffer made his way across the goal for our first touchdown, after receiving the punted ball, which Ray Hoadley had just blocked.

The Hawks were just beginning to show their strength at the fourth quarter. We were ahead, 14 to 6 when Springs ran the ball straight through our line to score a second touchdown. Ed Trujillo and Ray Hoadley blocked point attempts made by the Hawks. Dave McCoy gained 44 yards on five carries. Half-back Jim Mack led the offense with 79 yards on fifteen carries. The final score was, Hawks 19, Eagles 14.

Turkey Day Game

The final game of the season was held at Central Stadium traditionally, against the Cavaliers. The stands were overflowing with spirit from both sides. In the first play Earl Swindle carried a Cavalier back about 10 yards. Despite this attempt, Coral Gables pushed their way through the line to score.

Coral Gables continually mounted up points until finally in the fourth quarter Eric Barrie rushed over their goal for a touchdown. The extra point was kicked by Mike Berkow. The score ended at 49—7.

Eaglettes Step Up to Varsity

With spirit and drive, the baby Eagles tried their hardest to make the most of the season, even though they were not very often victorious. Coached by Walter Janssen, the Eaglettes gained valuable experience, which will contribute much to next year's team. Outstanding players were Curtiss Williams and Richard McCullough. Rick Kimel and Tim Murr were moved up to Varsity.

J.V. Basketball gained valuable experience for next year's team.

S.W. Batters—Better than Ever

Coached by Coach Green, the Eagles swung into the 1969 baseball season, here at Southwest, with a bright outlook for the season. Many juniors and seniors, with the experience from last year's team, along with some new sophomores, led the team to many victories.

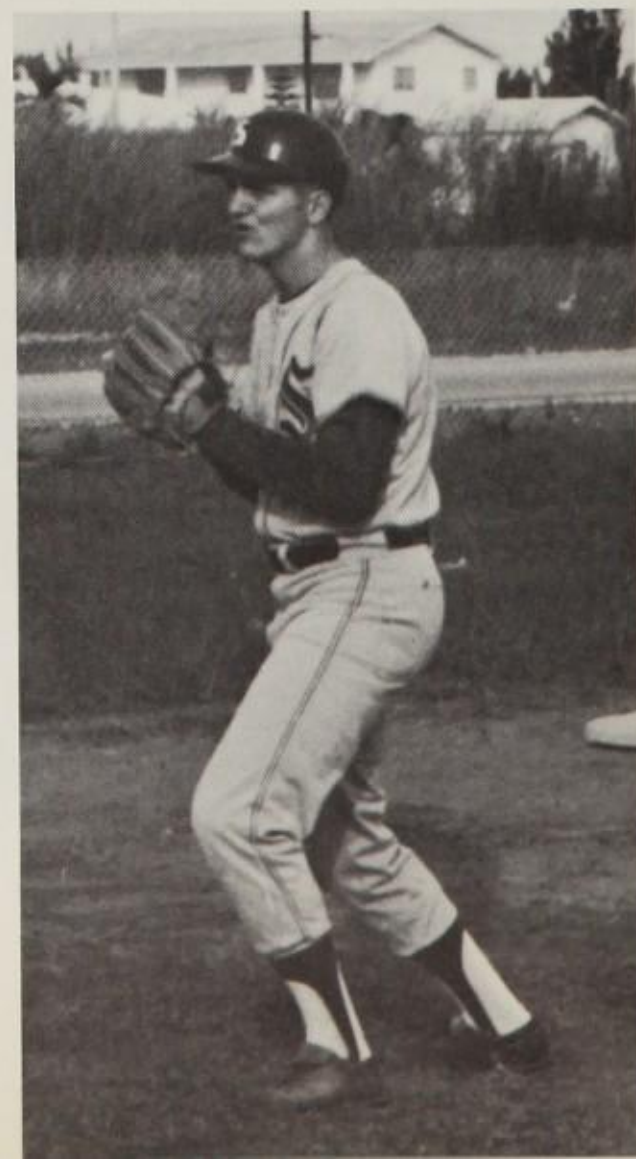

All thirty-two members practiced every afternoon, during the spring, on the Southwest field. They concentrated on their pitching, catching and batting, which was a tremendous asset to the team.

Boys Bowl Second in Division

In the 1969 bowling season at Southwest, the boy's team placed second in their division with a final record of 28 wins and 8 losses. The starting lineup was, co-captain Wayne Graham, Harry Tudor, Burt Rosen, Bill Hedgepath, David Guinn, and Jerry Lombardo.

In the girl's division, the season ended with a final record of 19 wins and 17 losses after bowling many close games. Captain, Clarissa Gliksman and co-captain, Nancy Zapel earned the title of high scorers for the season.

Coached by Mr. James Talbott, both teams practiced on Wednesday afternoons at Bird Bowl Lanes, which provided the teams with shoes, shirts and free bowling.

Clarissa Gliksman's bowling was a great asset to the team.

Girl's P.E. Offers Variety

This year at Southwest, the girl's Phys. Ed. department offered Modern Dance as one of the courses, which girls could participate in for a six week period. The girls, being taught by the Phys. Ed. teachers, were given the chance to develop their coordination, gracefulness and poise, as well as an appreciation and an awareness of dance. Many of the girls excelled in special areas of Modern Dance.

Mr. Allsworth Serves S.W. for Seven Years

Mr. Allsworth discusses the day's activities with Mrs. Wilson.

Southwest Senior High School Principal E. Hugh Allsworth would like to see SW trying to reach every student, despite his or her own personal interests, aptitudes and aspirations. To further this wish, Mr. Allsworth takes personal pride in directing and managing activities and programs of the school.

Also helping in many community affairs, Mr. Allsworth serves as parliamentarian of the Florida Education Association and is a member of the Miami Shores Exchange Club. He is a former president of the Dade County Classroom Teachers' Association.

Having been principal for seven years, and serving Dade County education for over twenty-three years, Mr. Allsworth is well prepared to lead Southwest to the goal of "academic excellence and personal integrity for the entire student body."

Mr. Allsworth muses with Mr. Stewart.

Counselors

Extensive training, compassion, and understanding are just a few of the many outstanding qualities found in the Southwest Counselors.

These people listen to the complaints, hopes, and disappointments that occupy their many hours at school. And they still find time in the midst of all this frustration to assist their students in schedule planning, and to help them with the problems that they may encounter in high school.

Mr. Jamison and Mrs. Lephew often confer on Guidance problems of students.

Students find Mrs. Kolosna easy to speak with.

Mrs. Van Dyke—Guidance Secretary

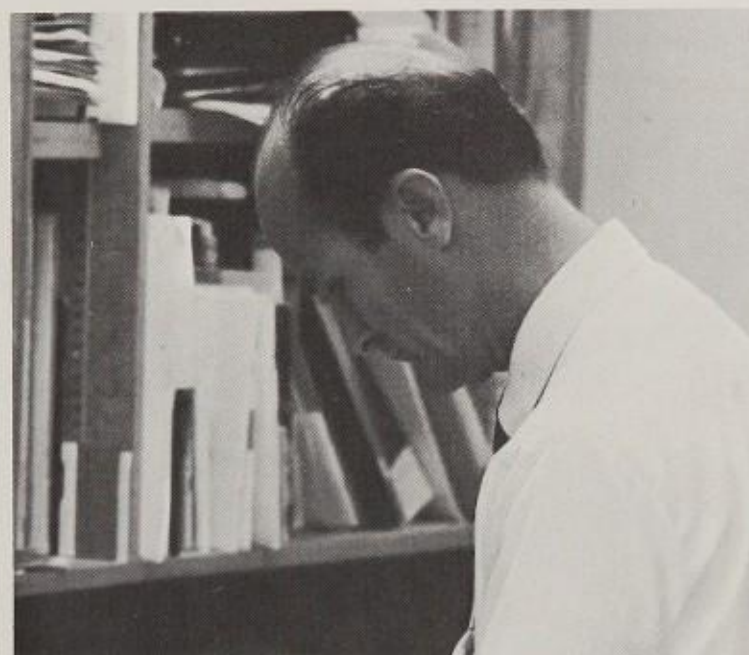

Mr. Walker's office is always a busy place.

"Look that one up in your Funk and Wagnall," says Mr. Walker.

Sock it to 'em Mrs. Fricke.

"Where could I have put that book?" asks Mr. Rafield.

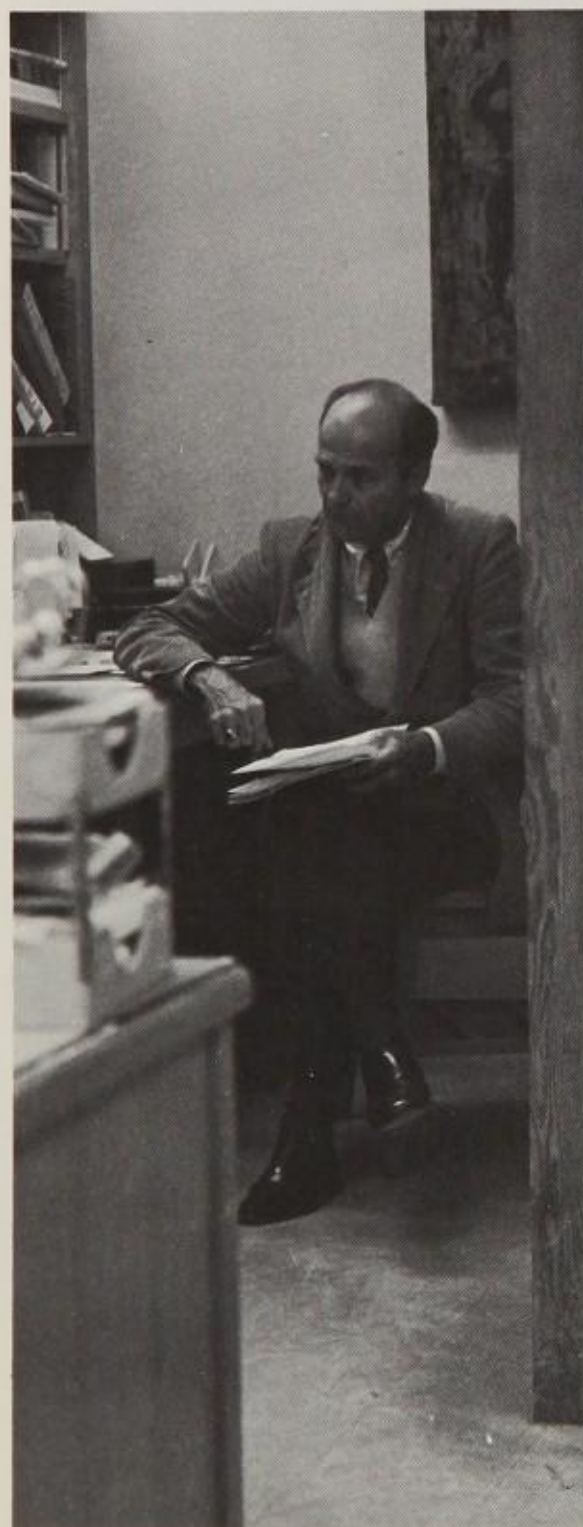

Mrs. Banks illustrates a point.

Mr. Rafield is always ready to help a student with problems.

Mrs. Sullivan's smiling face is a part of S.W.

Mrs. Williams—Treasurer

Mrs. Glaesar—Secretary to the Principal

The school assistants at SW can easily be referred to as unsung heroes. These are the people who perform the tasks that keep the school functioning smoothly but are so often taken for granted. To them is due the appreciation of the student body for their excellent and dependable performances of their behind-the-scene roles. As the school year of '68-'69 comes to a close we the students of Southwest Miami Senior High School say "thank you."

English

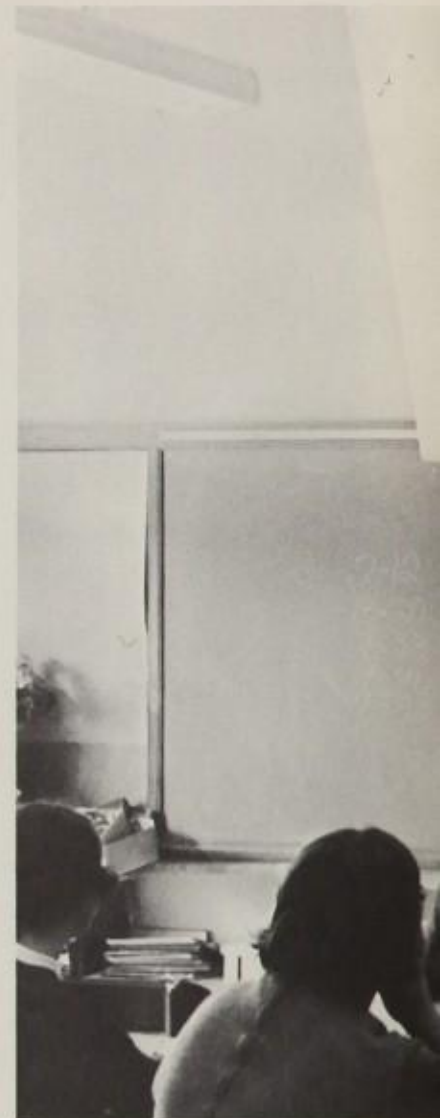

Mrs. Hankins' Honors English 12 classes are both stimulating and interesting.

English encompasses a world in itself, because it is the means of communication. Headed by Mrs. Gretchen Hankins, the English department offers a mass of varied knowledge for all those who will take it—and for those who won't. In addition to four years of required English, elective classes were offered in contemporary and world literature, vocabulary, accelerated reading, speech, debate, drama, journalism, and library. English prepares students for college, for business, and for daily communications. For those who seek to learn, Southwest is fortunate to have a qualified staff eager to share their knowledge.

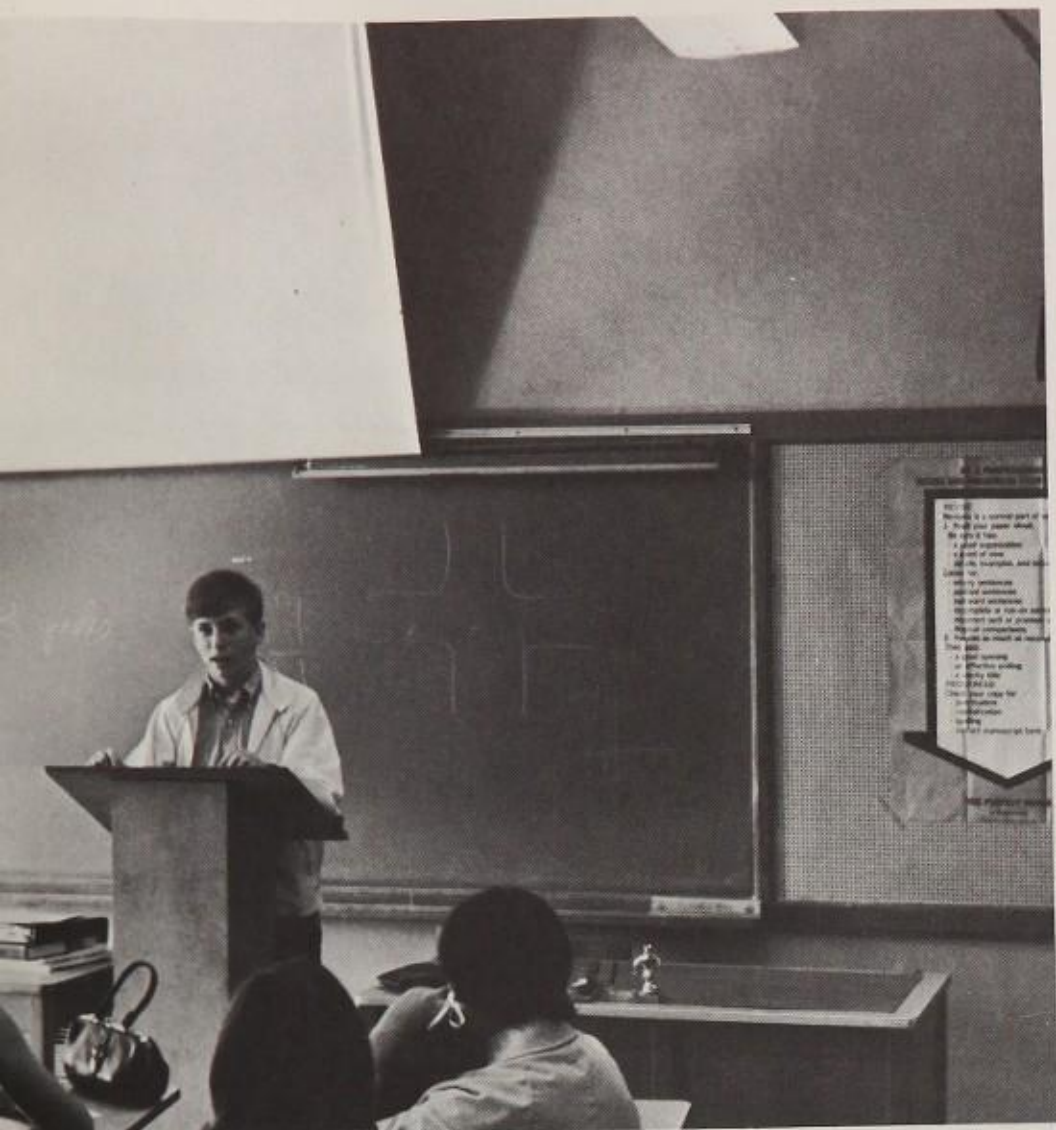

Miss Stone keeps a wary eye on her English classes.

Mr. Lawrence makes vocabulary interesting and exciting.

Mark Ellison gives the class an authoritative lecture.

Mrs. Reisinger always has a smile for TV English II students.

Panels are used to add new dimensions to TV English.

Mrs. Staats sponsors the award winning Lancer.

Social Studies

Mrs. Crabtree works with the UN Club.

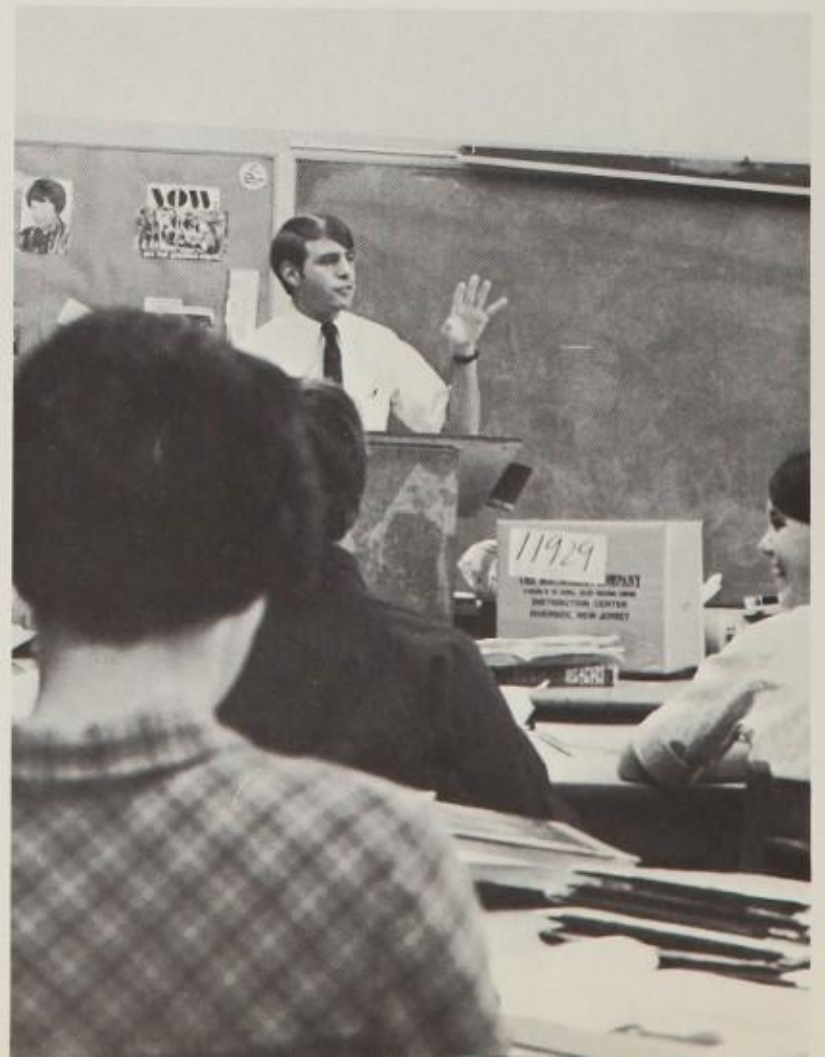

Bill Coleman towers over Mrs. Weintraub.

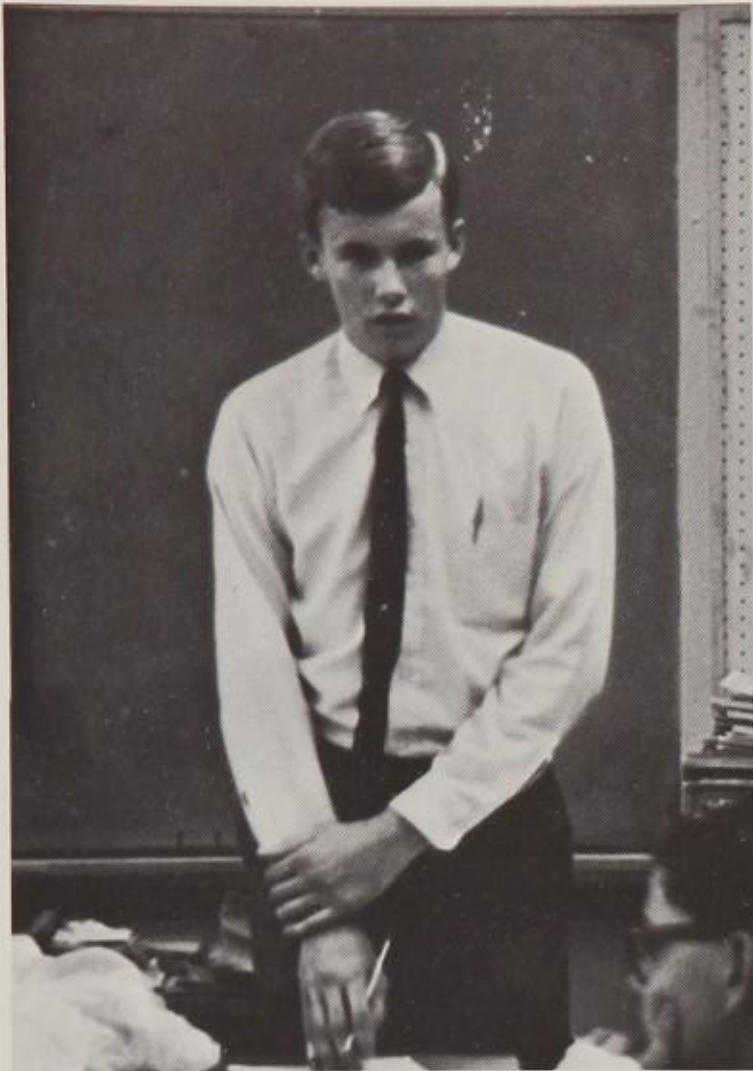

Mr. Toner is a member of the TV History teaching team.

The Social Studies department of Southwest offers a comprehensive program of study to help students gain a better understanding of the various social sciences and history. The courses offered include World Geography and World History for sophomores, and U.S. History for juniors. Seniors are offered such classes as Sociology-Psychology, and U.S. Government as preparation for college studies or careers in the social sciences.

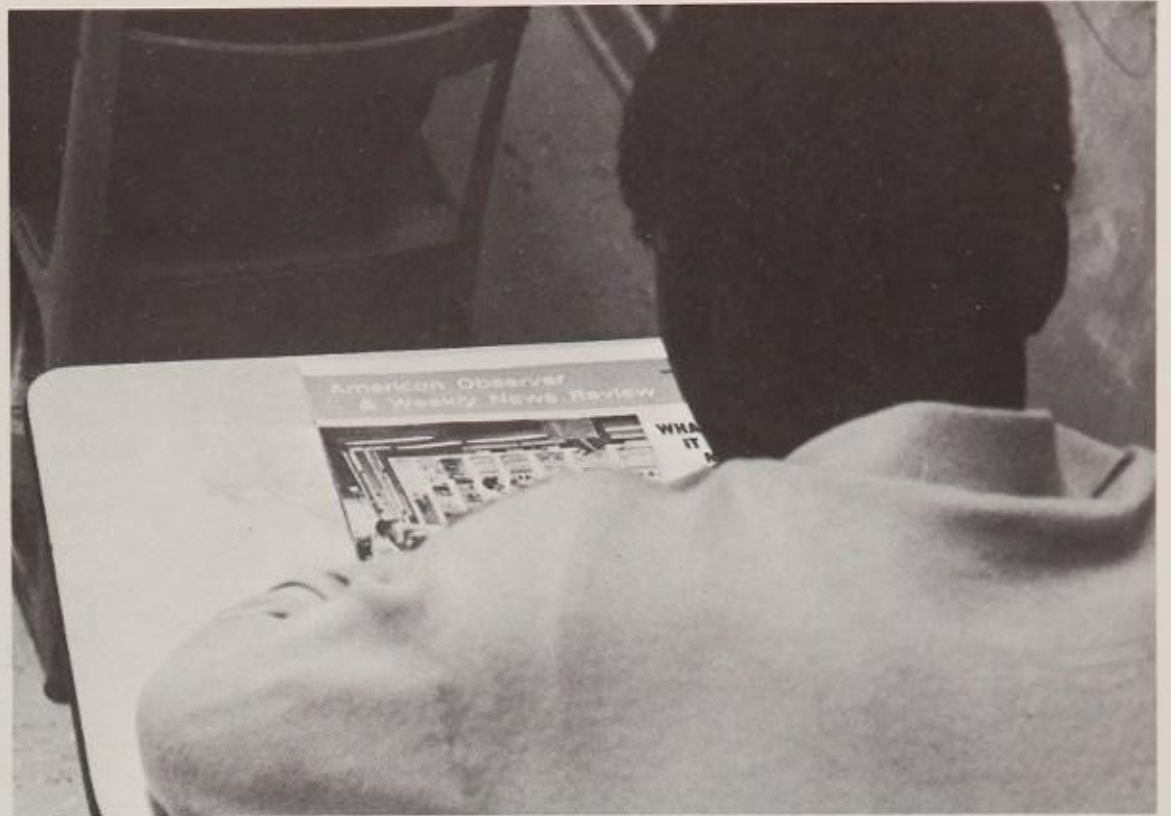

Mr. Christie emphasizes the importance of government study to his students.

Bill Todd is president of the UN Club.

Social Studies students receive an American Observer each week.

Mr. Wilson teaches as well as counsels.

Mr. Ward's psychology classes study human behavior.

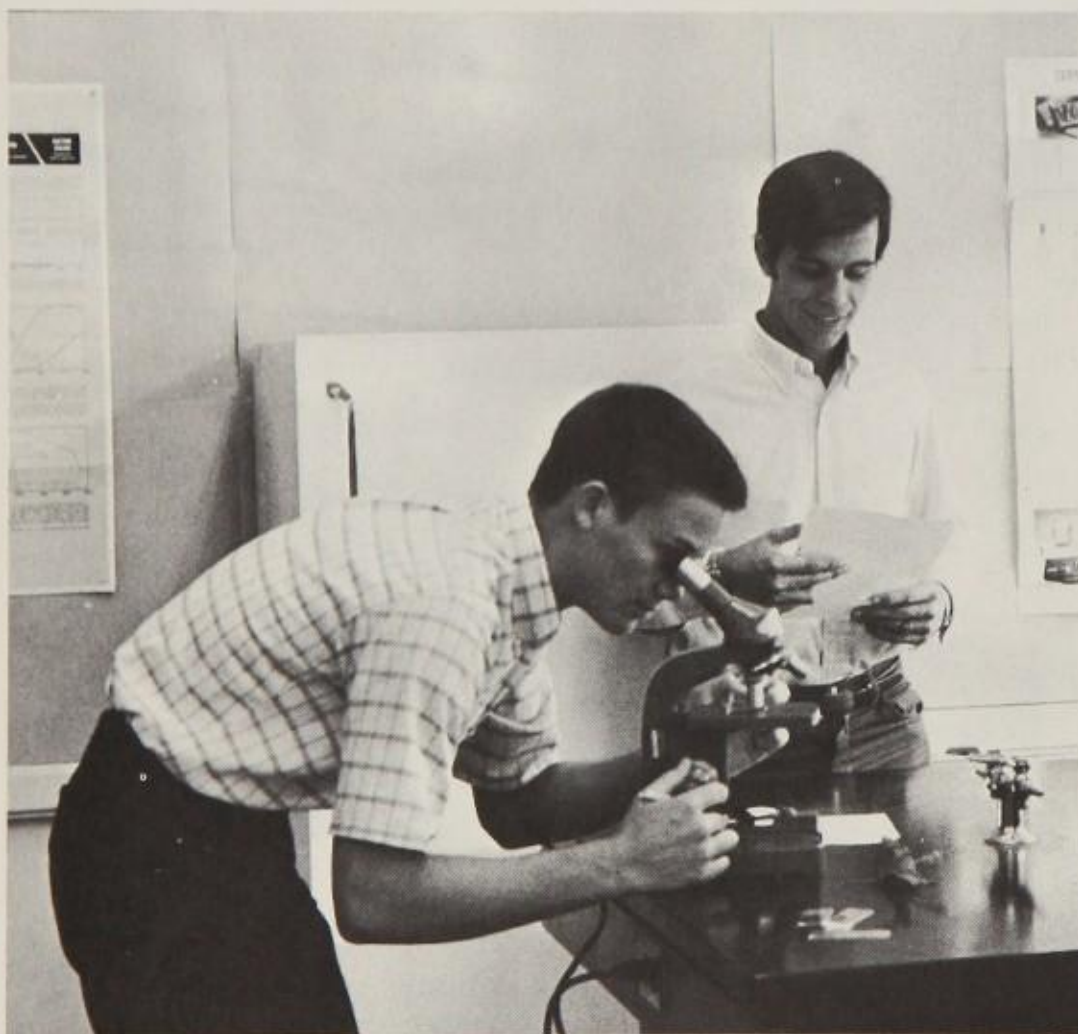

Science Department

Students must have a strong foundation in the field of science in order to cope with the increasing demands on an atomic-minded world. Because of the importance of science preparation in high school, it is the aim of the science department to meet these demands.

As a first step in answering the challenge, the sophomores are offered biology, which is the basis for more technical courses. Chemistry is a second step in preparing students for the progress of a scientific future. Harvard Physics plus many other science courses is offered at Southwest.

Students find Mrs. Gunsallus helpful.

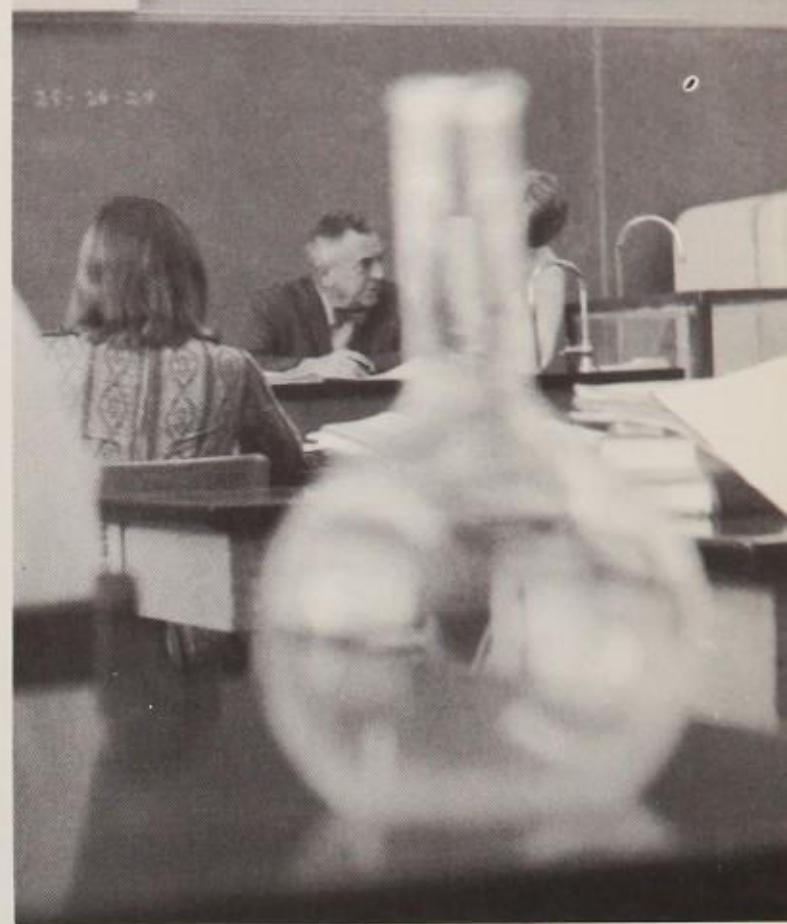

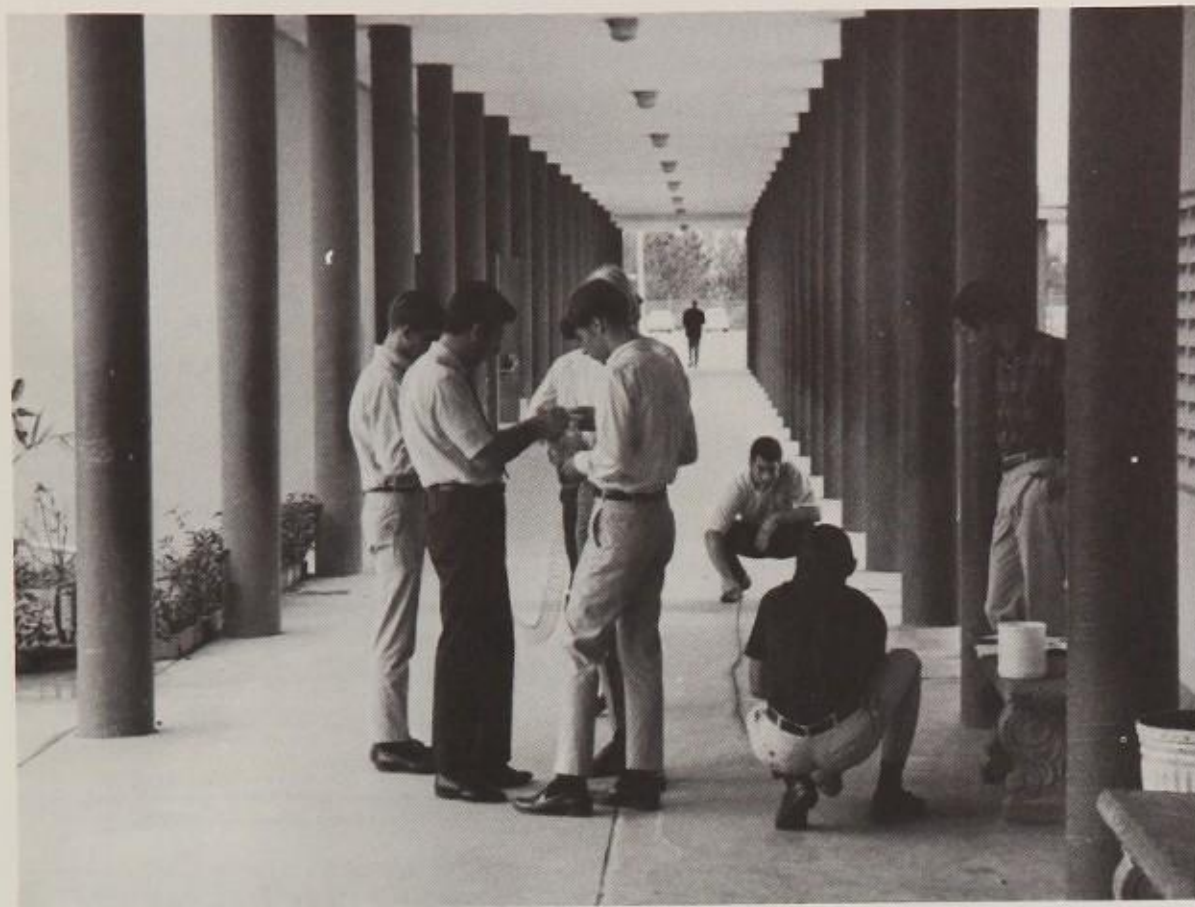

JoEllen Alshouse studies her physics.

Microscopes reveal new worlds.

Mr. Barnes teaches Chemstudy.

A Harvard Physics class uses springs to study wave motion.

Mr. Cuenca explains a Physics problem.

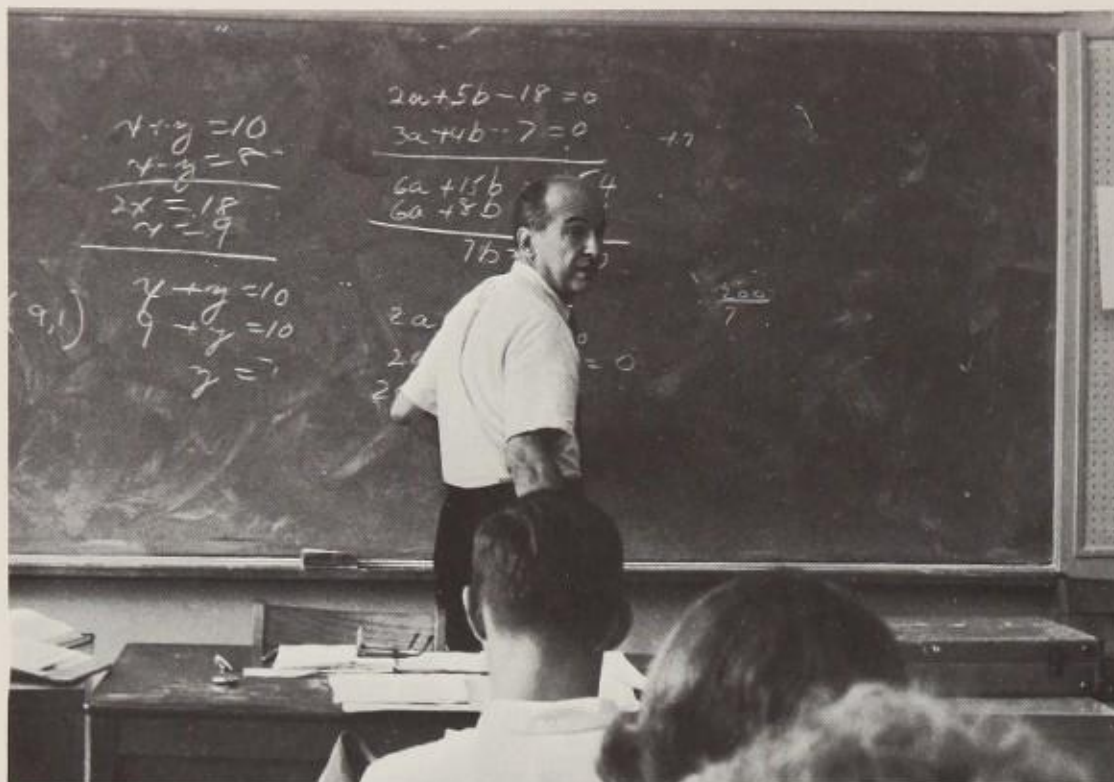

The Science Department discovers a skunk in the lab.

Mathematics

The Mathematics Department under Mr. Alexander DiRienzo, Department Head, once again made outstanding contributions to Southwest's program of advance study. Courses such as calculus, trigonometry, solid geometry, and math analysis challenged the outstanding students, while business and general courses met the specialized needs of others.

In accordance with their abilities and aptitudes in math, sophomores, juniors, and seniors benefited from the honors, regular, accelerated and basic programs provided by the fine department. Students strived for better understanding in these courses and they came closer to conquering the essential for all walks of life; which is mathematics.

Mr. Faye answers a puzzling question during a review session.

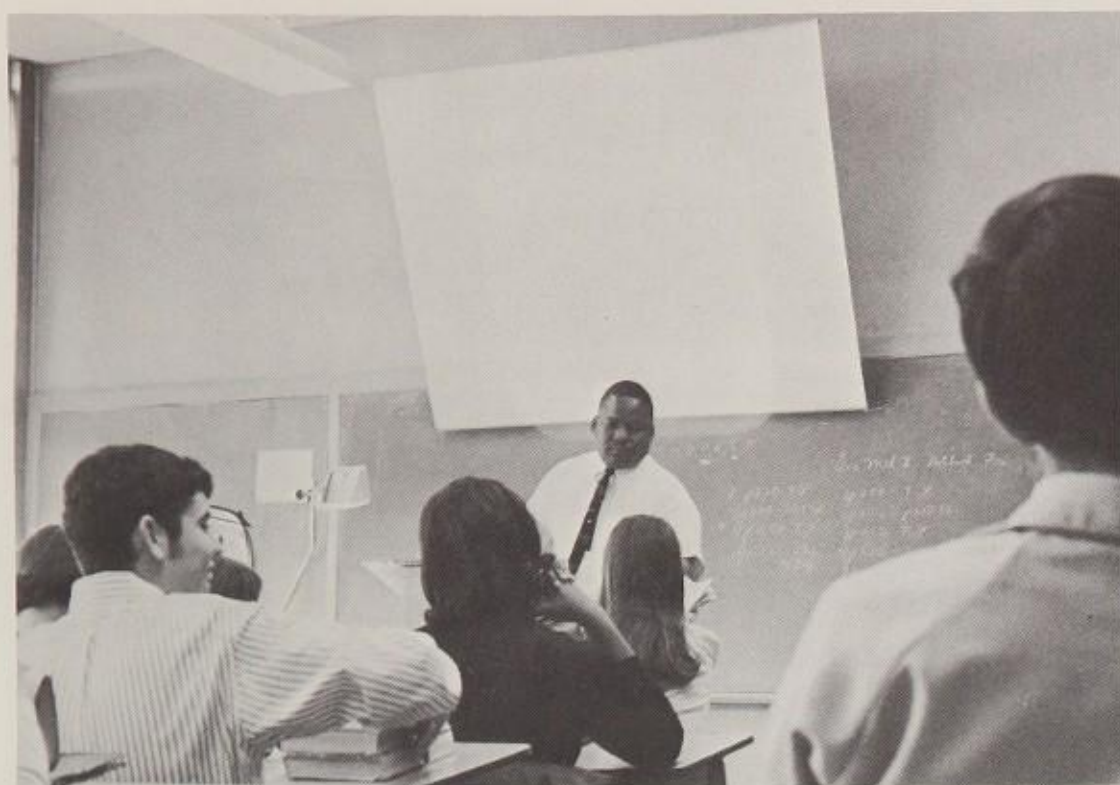

Mr. DiRienzo supports school activities.

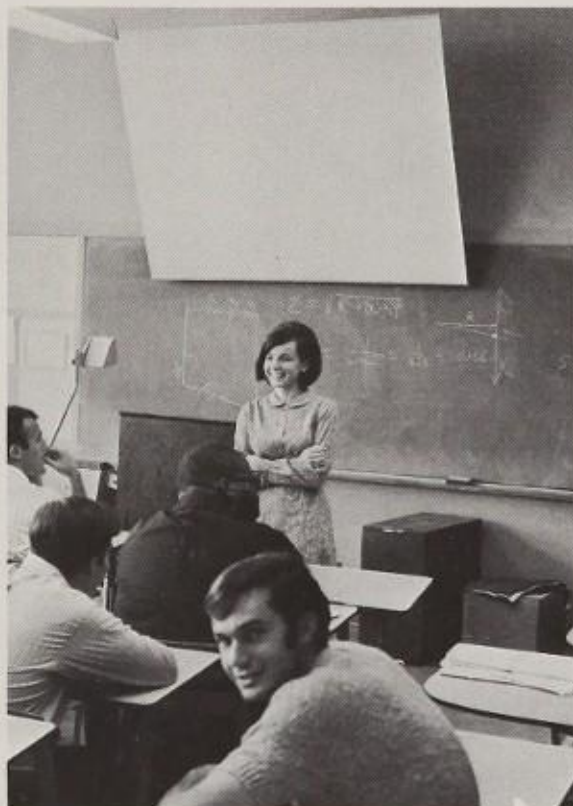

Mr. Andreson relaxes during a busy day.

Mr. Shaw uses the overhead projector to clarify math problems.

Mr. Dirienzo—Department Head

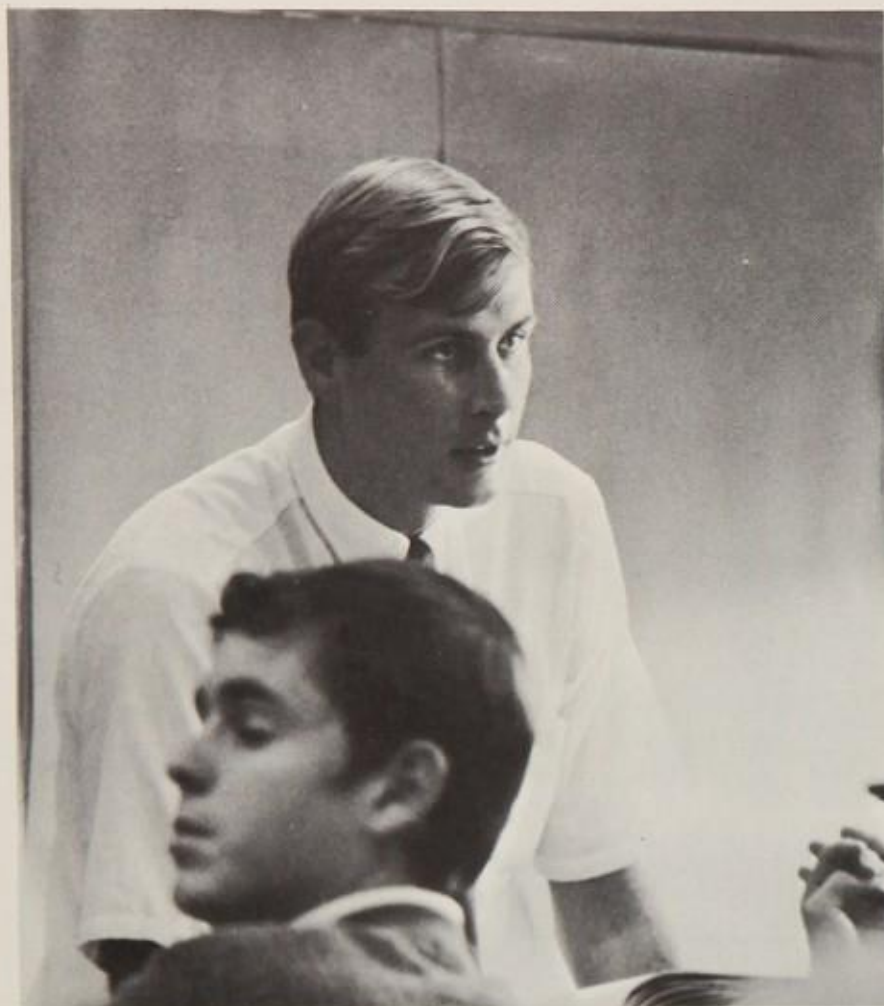

Miss Shafer always wears a smile.

Mrs. Allan discusses equations with her Algebra I class.

Foreign Languages

Mr. Janssen teaches German at S.W. for the first time this year.

Miss Puckett explains the conjugation of the verb estar.

Mr. Janssen and Mrs. Calvera share a language lab.

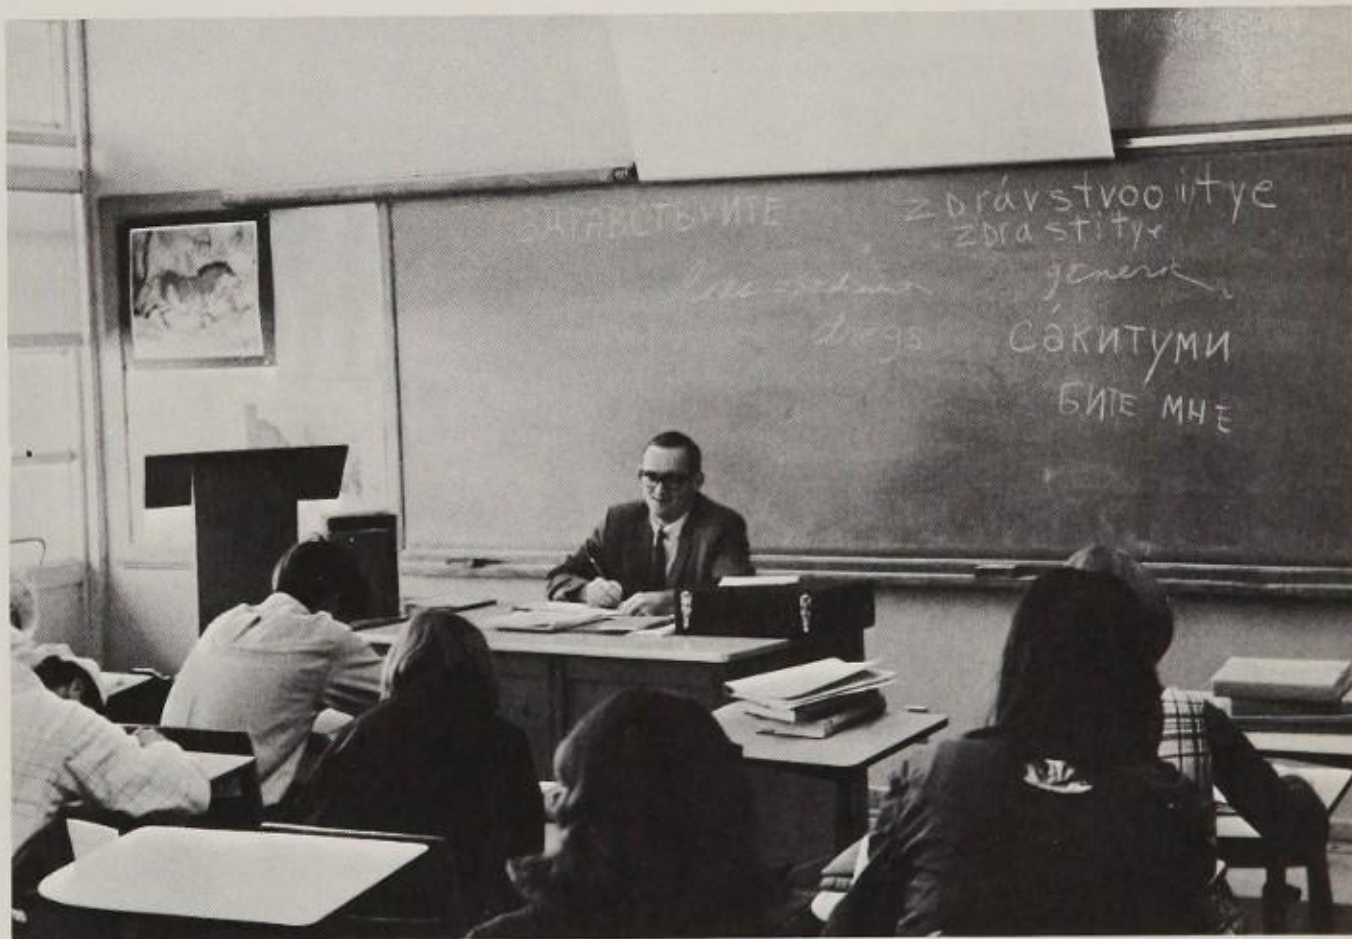

Mrs. Saenz teaches Spanish II and III.

Home Economics

Maria Ricklick enjoys the new costume and design class.

For students interested in a more domesticated life, the Southwest Home Economics Department offered a variety of classes to serve both the girls and boys.

Taking courses such as Home Ec. I and II, Home Furnishings, Child Development, Foods and Nutritions, the girls are being prepared to use various sewing, cooking, and household skills in their future lives.

The boys are included in the Modern Family Living classes, which teach certain home and family fundamentals. They also participate in a new course, Costume and Design, in which the students make the costumes for the play productions.

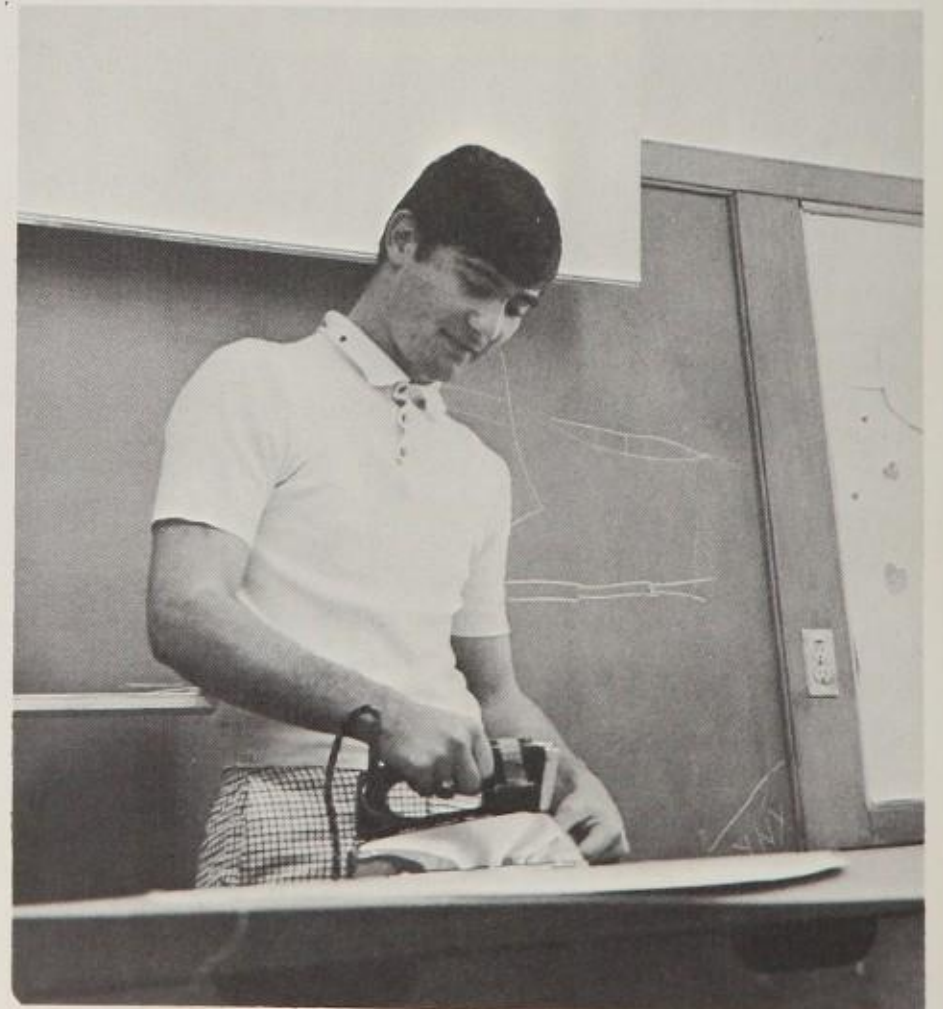

The Home Ec. Department sponsors the FHA (Future Homemakers of America), the annual Valentine's Day Rose Sale, and participate in the schoolwide beautification program by redecorating the dining and living rooms, where the Christmas Open House is held.

Music

Under the direction of Mr. William Johnson, Mr. Melvin Baker, and Mr. Bobo, the chorus, band, and orchestra entertains everyone while members display individual talent. The Royal Lancer Band provides half-time shows for the football games and represents Southwest at the Orange Bowl festivities. The orchestra and chorus present several concerts throughout the year. Many students in the music department bring recognition to Southwest by turning in outstanding performances at clinics. Striving for beauty in sound using the human voice or musical instruments the music department develops talented students in ability and appreciation of variety.

Mr. Johnson puts "soul" into his directing of concert chorus.

The Royal Lancer band lies under the direction of Mr. Baker.

Steve Parsons directs the Southwest Concert Orchestra.

Arthur Fieldler is a guest director of the orchestra.

Mr. Johnson compliments the chorus on their fine practice in preparation for the Messiah.

The final results of the practice are breathtaking.

Above—The chorus and orchestra perform the Messiah.

Being a member of the Royal Lancers Band required many hours of summer practice.

Art Department

Students learn to express themselves and project their personalities into works of art under the supervision of Mr. Crawford and Mrs. Kowalchuk. Students at Southwest can take up to four years of art. A variety of crafts ranging from painting and sculpture to sketching and lettering are practiced by the students.

Art I classes study lettering, color, and basic design. The advanced art classes work on composition, color and line, and eventually paint in oils.

Miss Kowalchuk gives instructions to her advanced art classes.

Cara Crawford displays her artistic talents.

Mr. Crawford and Dorothy Wawryck admire some art.

Students in Art I also work with clay.

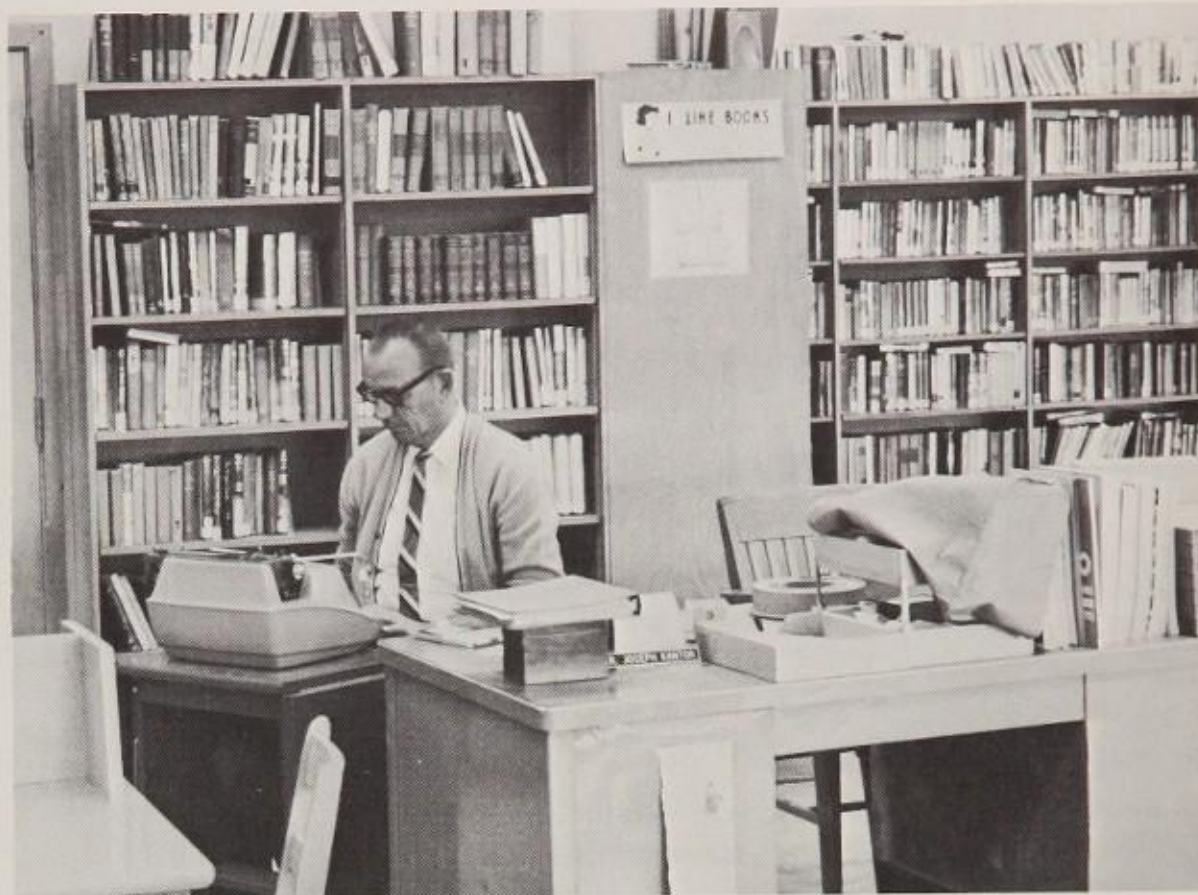

Harold Johnson concentrates on lettering.

Library

With a collection of over 21,000 books and 80 magazines, maps, and pamphlets, five librarians and two clerks keep the library open from 7:15 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Audio-visual materials and reference sources provide students with an excellent opportunity to study, do research, or just read for enjoyment. New books are constantly being purchased for the benefit of the students.

Mr. Kantor finds the library perfect atmosphere for working.

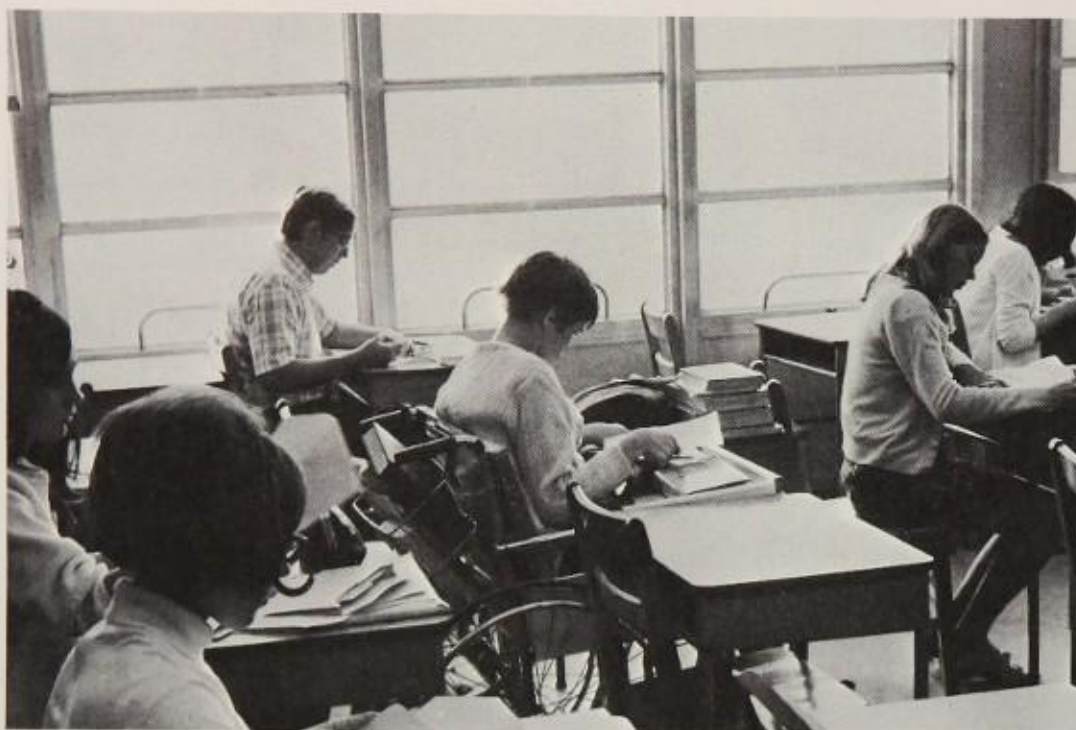

Mr. Price works hard to make the library beneficial to all students.

Mr. Price, Mrs. Bitter, and Mrs. LeJuene discuss the problem of overdue books.

Business Education

Personal Shorthand is a popular course among Seniors.

Students may use adding machines to assure accurate calculations.

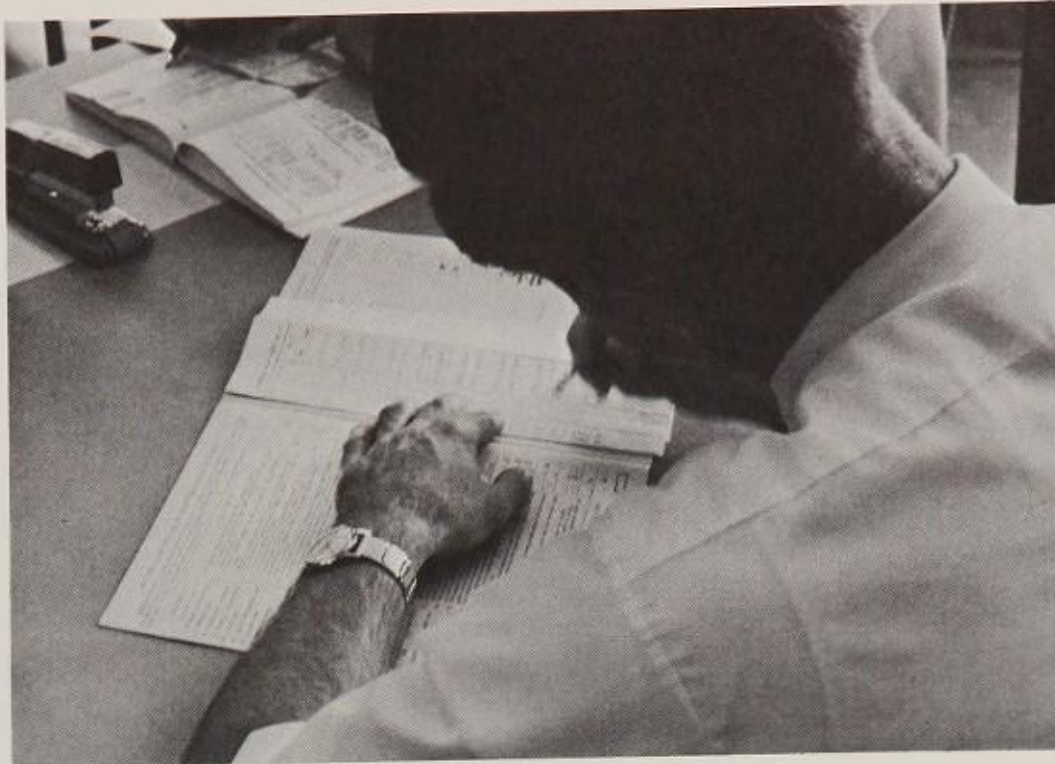

Business Education offers preparation for the future to many Southwest students. Subjects such as business law, business english, business math, and consumers economics are taught.

Certified Business Education and Distributive Education or "on the job" training is highly appealing to business students. Various clubs, among them Future Business Leaders of America stress the need and importance of becoming a better business person. This department consistently turns out outstanding students and fine workers in the business field.

Jimmy Barocas concentrates on his typing.

Workbooks are used in Business Mathematics courses at Southwest.

Mrs. Edwards is attentive to her students questions.

Mr. Debrei organizes his notes.

Ready, Get Set, Go!

Special Education

Miss Job is a patient and understanding teacher.

Sherry Hulet and Maria Ricklick chat before class.

John Thomas and Miss Job meet before school in the Special Education room.

Miss Job, David Day and Susie Factor take time out to smile for our photographer.

Handicapped students at Southwest find few limitations to the activities they can participate in. Through the efforts of the Special Education Department, these individuals join organizations and attend classes with their fellow students. Miss Sara Job and Mr. Robert Lightcap teach students to develop individual skills and talents.

Bruce Smith and "Man's Best Friend."

John Thomas and Bruce Smith make a friend.

John Wimberly uses the Braille typewriter as Mr. Lightcap looks on.

Vocational Shops

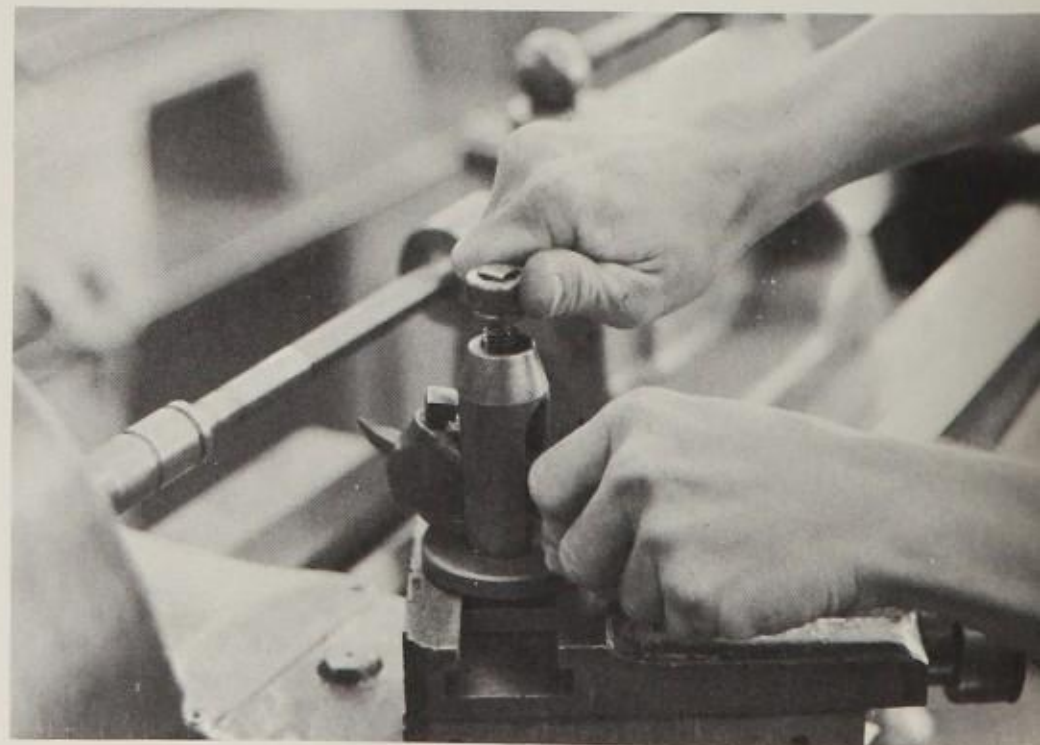

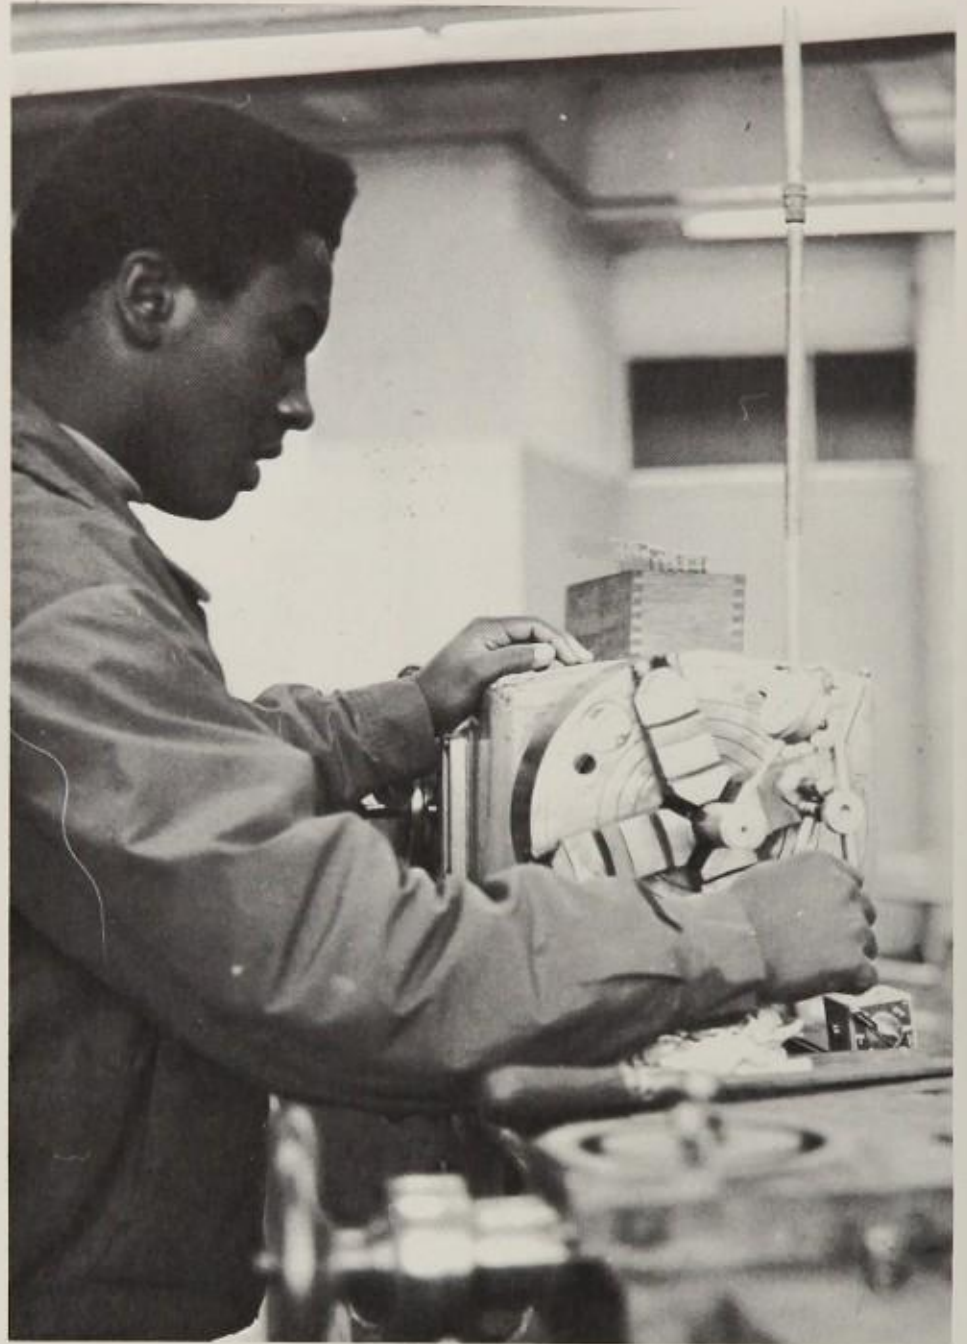

Brian Lynn uses the electric sander.

Mr. Ward and Mr. Campbell discuss the importance of safety.

Students with an interest in individual vocations are given an opportunity to explore and develop skills which will prepare them for employment upon completion of high school. Southwest's Industrial Arts program, under the direction of Mr. Robert Campbell, provides students with materials and equipment comparable to their particular field.

David Walker uses an intricate piece of machinery in Metal Shop.

A lathe is an intricate piece of machinery.

Mr. Campbell is a friend as well as instructor.

Mr. Samoriski reigns over Metal Shop.

Typewriter repair is an art requiring skill.

Mr. Blotnick measures wood for cutting.

Auto Mechanics

John Skidmore and Dean Inks receive instruction from Mr. Hoicomo.

In today's world the need for trained mechanics has become an essential one. The Automotive Mechanics course, is an integral factor in promoting this facet of modern life. The students of Auto Mechanics gain practical experience in this field by actually repairing cars, for a nominal fee.

Carl Higgs repairs an engine.

Gary Tepper replaces tools after repairing an engine.

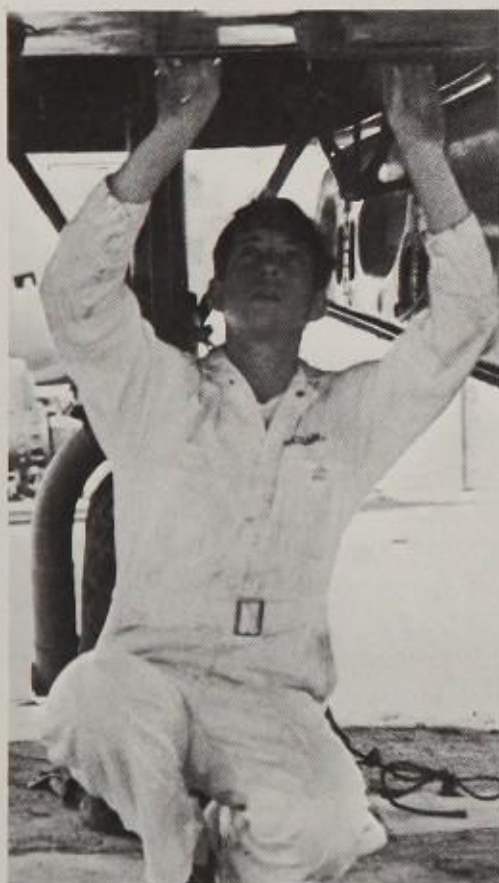

What have we here?

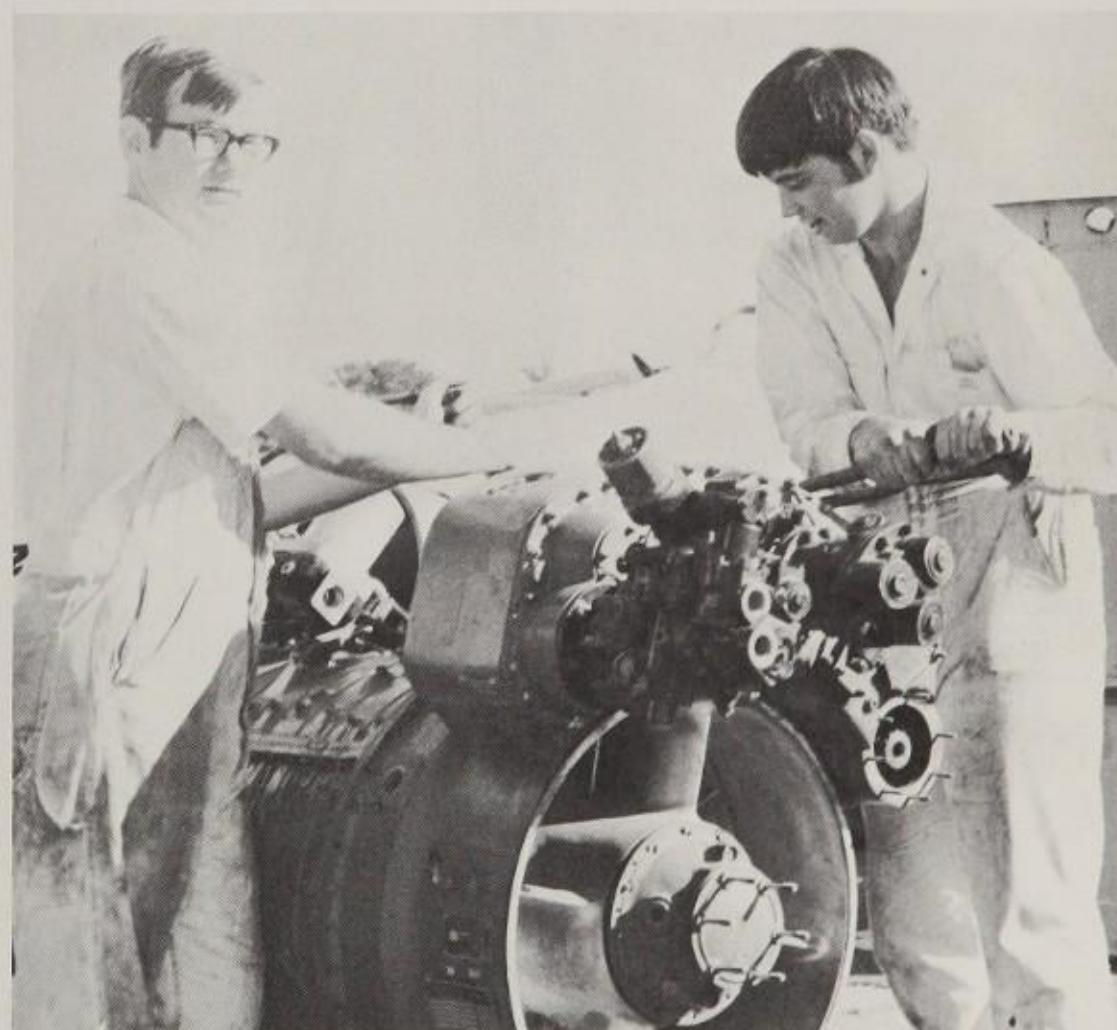

Aviation

Aviation is one of the unusual and practical subjects in the Vocational Department. Students in the Aviation program attend SW for one-half the day, and the George T. Baker Aviation School for the remaining half. At the Aviation School they study sheet metal, air frames, powerplants, welding, aviation maintenance, wood and fabric, and hydro-electronics. This subject is made exciting and interesting because of the practical experience the student gains.

Kenneth Edwards adjusts the gears of an airplane motor.

Ken Edwards gains valuable experience.

Lee McCulloch and Charles Bridges work on an engine.

Distributive Education

John Butler poses a question about stock markets.

Students in the Distributive Education program receive both practical instruction and job training under the watchful eye of Mr. Frank George.

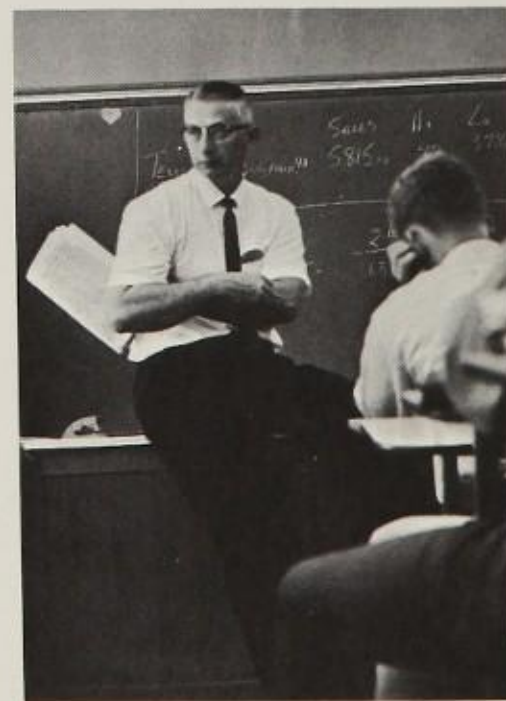

Supplementing the morning classes is the actual experience students gain by holding jobs in the community during the afternoons.

Participants discover that the experience will be of increasing value in attaining and maintaining future jobs.

Tommy Masune and Jimmy Schollmeyer daydream during class.

Steve Dowling concentrates.

Mr. George explains the stock market to Distributive Education Students.

Norma Speer puts the finishing touches on Pat Cameron's hair style.

Donna Allen relaxes under the dryer in Cosmetology.

Mrs. Krizbacker demonstrates the correct way to apply hair color to Kay VanCamp.

Cosmetology

Due to the role hair pieces play in the life of the modern woman, cosmetology places emphasis on the care and styling of wigs. Menial tasks are played down and more time is devoted to hair coloring.

Senior students are available three hours a week for appointments made by women in the community. After successfully completing a two year program and a six week summer extension, cosmetology students are able to obtain their state beautician licenses.

Gladys Lazono prepares a haircolor solution.

Physical Education

"Tell me if the teachers looking," says Cathy Canterbury.

Kathy Alshouse enjoys the game bombardment.

"I made it," shouts Kathy Farrow after running 50 yds.

A moment of contemplation for Miss Lowe.

Phys Ed

Coach Lepore and John Rickert accurately record scores.

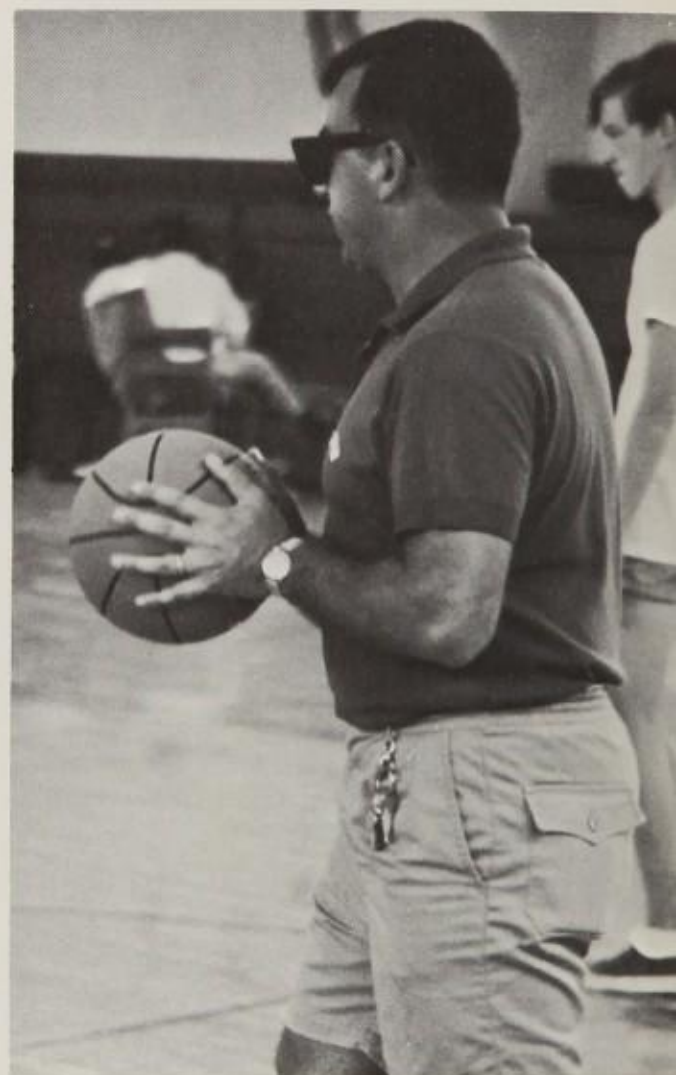

Students take the 50 yard dash seriously.

The 100 yard dash is just one of the required activities.

Coach D'allessio demonstrates the fundamentals of basketball.

Greg Carter finds little time to get dressed.

"And here's the winner!"

Laurie Segal pauses for our photographer.

Charles Cull prepares for class.

The Physical Education Department of Southwest has earned the distinction of being one of the finest in Florida. Physical fitness is stressed as both fun and important through good teaching and increased facilities. The outstanding program, coordinated by Coach Marty Levin, Department Head, continues to improve it's fine activities.

Up, up and away.

S.C. Launches Auditorium Clean Up

Guided by President Nancye Balkany, the Student Council work to provide the student body with a voice in school policies. Assisting the President are: Vice President, Paul Erwin; Secretary, Nancy Solomon; and Treasurer, Robin Thornton. Mr. Winston Jones serves as sponsor.

One of the most important projects was the auditorium clean-up. Students from each class devote their leisure time to sand and varnish the auditorium seats. Other projects include a food drive for underprivileged families, and a calendar sale.

Ron Williamson, Jerry Hodd and Anne Erickson sand the auditorium seats.

Paul Erwin—Vice President

Robin Thornton—Treasurer

S.C. Bridged Communication Gap

Thirty sophomore, junior and senior senators are chosen by their respective classes to attend each meeting held by the Student Council. The students are concerned with bridging the communication gap between students and representatives. Each senator is assigned to a particular committee, makes recommendations to the General Assembly and reports all news to the students.

Booster posters, the packing of Christmas baskets, and the auditorium cleanup project keep the Senators busy. They also devise ways to increase school spirit and participation in school activities.

Thirty Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Senators are chosen by their respective classes.

Board meetings are held in the cafeteria to assure maximum space.

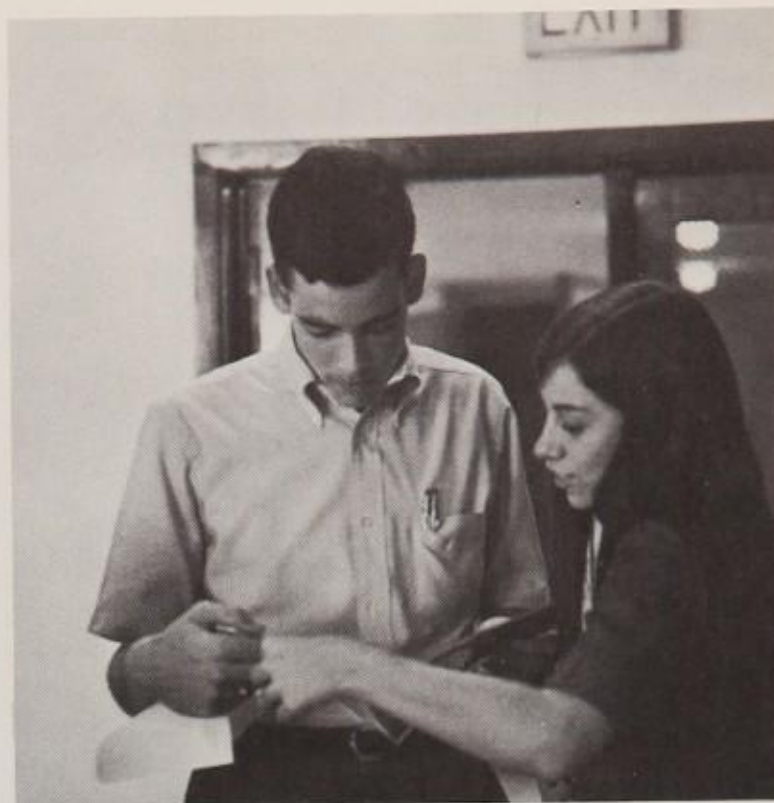

Nina Balsam, Carrie Cleland devise ways to further school spirit.

Linda Casso and Alan Mandlebloom discuss a recommendation to make to the General Assembly.

Clarissa Glicksman arrives promptly to begin her duties as a Senator.

Danny Williams seems enthusiastic about the proposed Student Council Christmas Food Drive.

Powder Puff Cabinet Leads Seniors

Under the direction of its president, Carrie Cleland, this year's Senior Class left its strong and heavy mark at Southwest. Its mark? This included the many doughnut sales, parties, and soc hops which the Class of '69 sponsored.

Other "powder-puff" officers were: Brenda Williamson, vice-president; Nina Balsam, secretary; and Pauline Stewart, treasurer. Uniting with their president, these people made their year of seniority the best possible, highlighted by the huge extravaganzas of Homecoming and the Prom. Their other festivities included the Senior Banquet, the Senior Awards Assembly, dress-up days, and Senior Bermuda Day.

With the passing of their prom, and with Graduation finally present, the Seniors stepped into the world ready to conquer.

JoEllen Leads Junior Class

Members of the Class of '70 prepared for seniority with soc hops, picnics, and dress-up days. JoEllen Alshouse, president, led the other officers, Helen Shaw, vice-president; Steve Koraly, treasurer; and Barbara Lovering, secretary, to a year full of exciting activities.

Junior Board members and junior class officers joined together to make their middle year a meaningful one, one which was highlighted by doughnut sales, a Barn Dance, and a magazine sale to sponsor the Junior-Senior Prom.

The prom, their goal, which they presented to the seniors was a great success. Starting with paint-splashed shorts, and ending with gold-glittered formals, it was a prom which the seniors won't forget, and which the juniors are happy to remember and await with curiosity their own Senior Prom.

Sophomore Officers of '68-'69

1968-69 Sophomore Class hit Southwest with astonishing school spirit and fine leadership. It was a tough decision but the sophomores elected Doug Sanders as president; Cathy Getter as secretary, and Nancy Wilskey as treasurer. Due to a tie, two vice-presidents were elected, Vikki Prinz and Lisa Tannen.

Eagle sophomores tried a variety of new and different ideas for raising money. Their projects included doughnut sales and swap meet sales. They also held a dance to increase their funds. Sophomore girls acted as hostesses at the Junior-Senior Prom.

Sophomores ended their first year at Southwest High with a large treasury, and a great deal of success. They looked forward with enthusiasm to two more years of high school and their graduation in 1971.

Student Honors

"No amount of ability is of the slightest avail without honor."

Andrew Carnegie

National Honor Society Helps Haven School

National Honor Society is an organization based on standards of achievement in four areas: scholarship, citizenship, character, and leadership. Its members are juniors and seniors who have exhibited exceptional performance in all of these categories. Although the Society was founded as an honorary group, it is now an organization which serves both the school and community.

Members of N.H.S. have helped to present the Southwest Honor Code in many classes, and they have been in charge of distributing the honor role cards. Their main project of the year is to help the Haven School for Retarded School.

Officers of National Honor at Southwest are: Paul Kramer, president; Gary Fagin, vice-president; Sue Asche, secretary; and Debbie Newton, treasurer.

As part of the ceremony, the inductees hold lit candles.

Danny Ellison, Gary Fagin, and Tom Collazo help selling cookies.

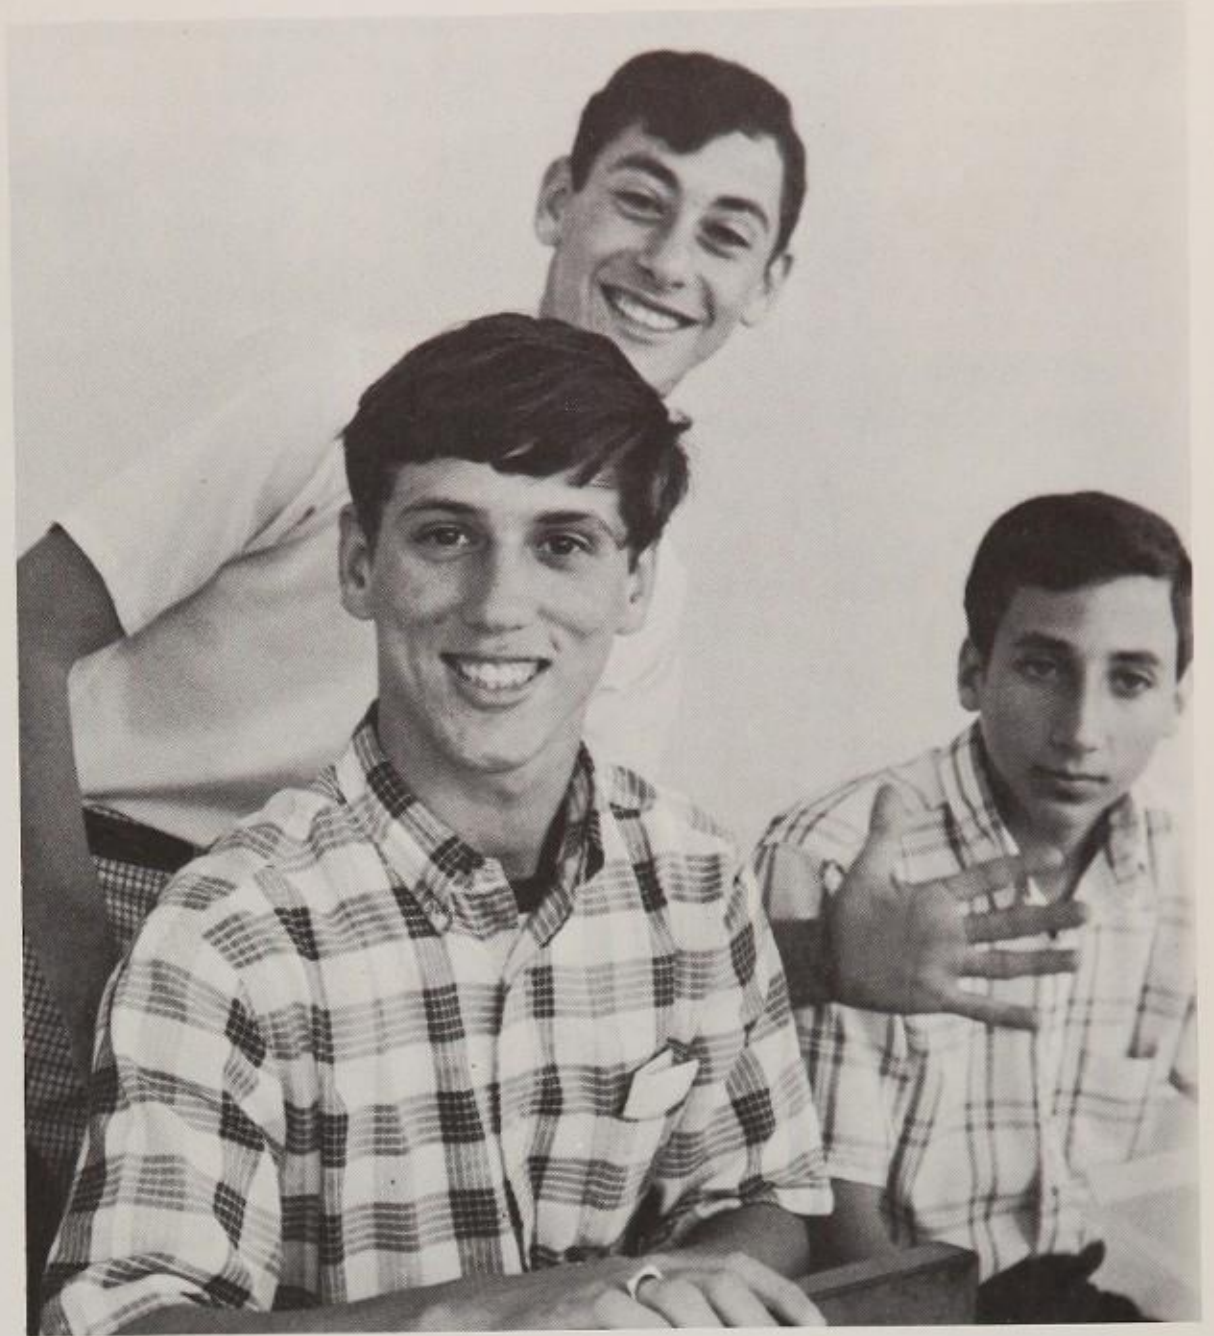

Debbie Fossick and Debbie Newton prepare to start serving cake.

Lynn Weiss and Bob Rosenthal listen quietly to the meeting.

Bob Lippman and Bob Rosenthal work hard at raising money.

Dennis King looks happy after the induction.

Paul Kramer enjoys conducting the meetings.

Sue Asche and Gary Fagin are always busy keeping records straight

Math Honor Society Inducts 33 New Members

Debbie Rachlin and Danny Ellison listen closely to what goes on at the meetings.

Southwest's chapter of the Mathematics Honor Society provides a chance for students who have excelled in math to help others. Their tutoring service seems to be a success at Southwest, and they enjoy every minute of it. President Tom Collazo heads the club, and Elliott Tarabour is vice president.

Other officers of Math Honor include: Judy Bernstein, corresponding secretary; and Carol Odessky, treasurer. Mr. Donald Cleland is sponsor of the club.

Events of this year include a poster party to make posters supporting the Eagles' football team, and the induction of thirty-three new members at an induction dinner held at Mr. Cleland's home.

As the meeting progresses, President Tom Collazo is delighted about the idea of a barbecue induction party.

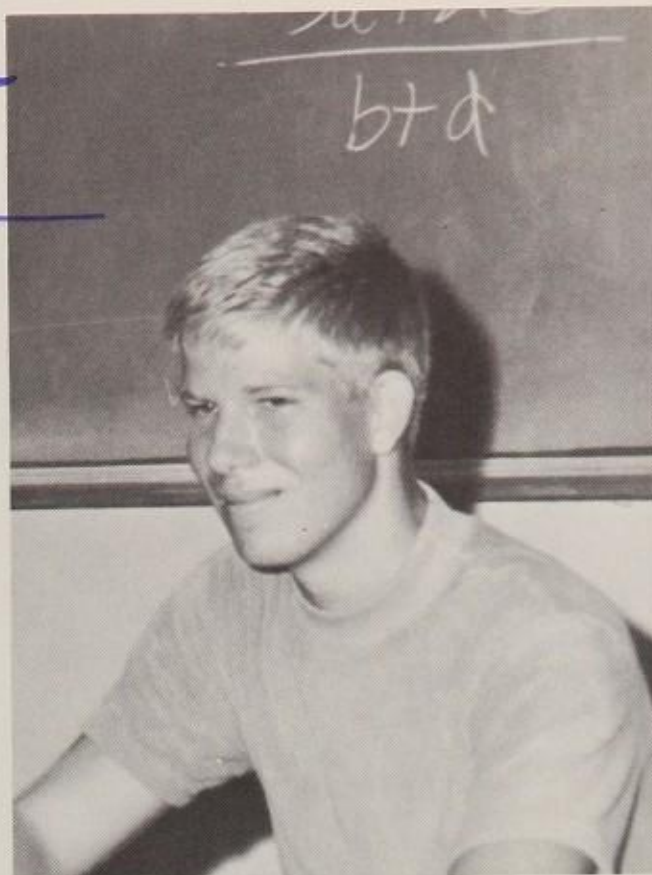

At the induction party, everyone helps themselves to the food.

Tom -
 Two years ought to be plenty to find another
 math teacher next year will ya? D. Cleland

Bob Solberg seems to find time to crack some jokes.

Sponsor . . . Mr. Cleland prepares enough food to satisfy everyone.

Robert Cooper enjoys his delicious brownie.

Judy Bernstein has fun at the party.

Spanish Honor Presents "La Violetra"

Girls take turns lighting candles at induction.

"I wonder if we have to order in Spanish?"

Spanish Honor Society is for those who like to learn more about the Spanish way of life. Some of the club's activities include the showing of a film entitled "La Violetera", much like "My Fair Lady", an induction party for new members, and several Spanish skits to perform.

Officers of Spanish Honor Society are: Carol Odesky, president; Tom Collazo, vice-president; Davida Cohen, secretary; Georgiana Jackson, treasurer; and Joyce Jacobs, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Ramirez serves as sponsor.

A 3.5 average in Spanish III or IV and a 410 average in Spanish II are the qualifications. The 18 new members who make the club are inducted at a banquet at the Lentro Vasco Restaurant.

Mrs. Ramirez—Sponsor

President Carol Odesky enjoys a relaxing moment.

Latin Honor Inducts New Members

New and old members watch as President Bob Solberg cuts the cake.

Students who maintain an A average in Latin for three semesters qualify to join Latin Honor Society. This organization promotes interest in Latin and in the culture of ancient Rome and Greece.

The members of Latin Honor tutor students who are doing poorly in Latin. Part of their study includes the Roman and Grecian government.

Latin Honor officers are; president, Robert Solberg; vice-president, Danny Ellison; secretary, Carol Crook; and treasurer, Robert Cooper. Sponsor is Mrs. Virginia Alexander.

New inductees look bewildered.

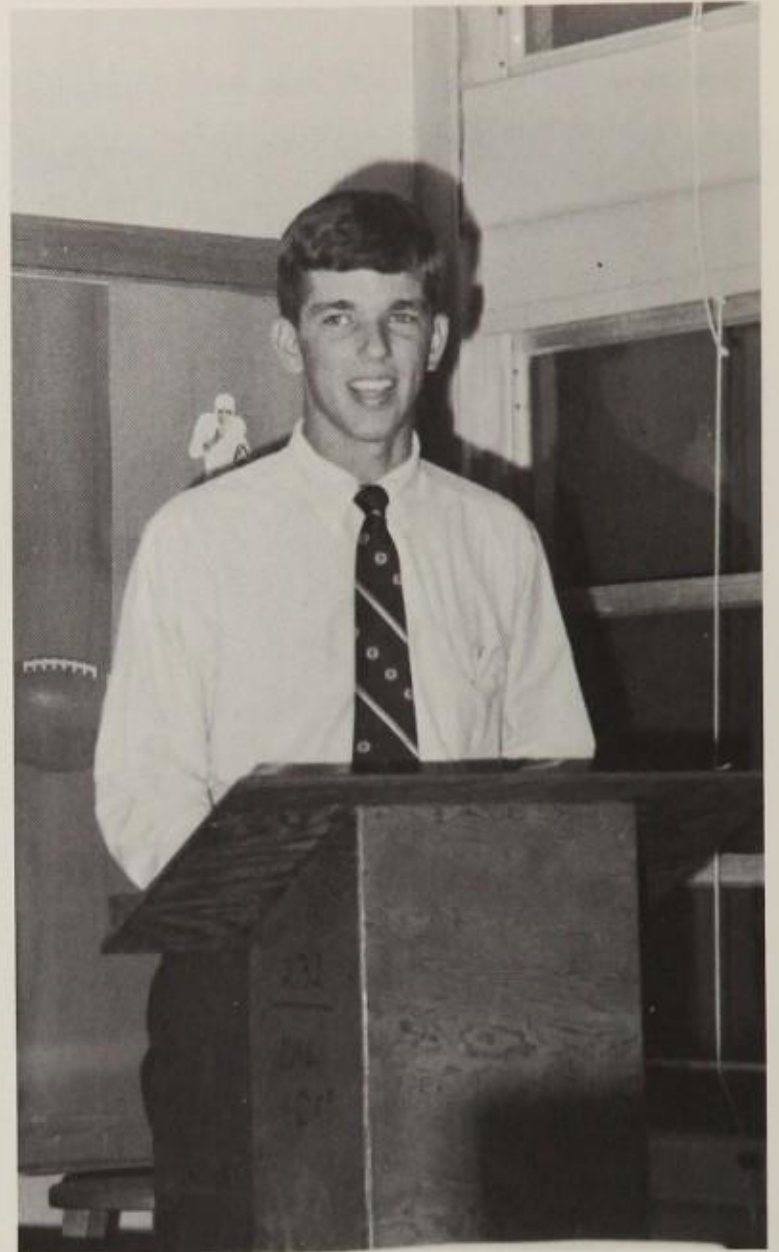

Mrs. Alexander—Sponsor

N.F.L. members pose for Aquila photographers.

Bob Zachritz presents his case.

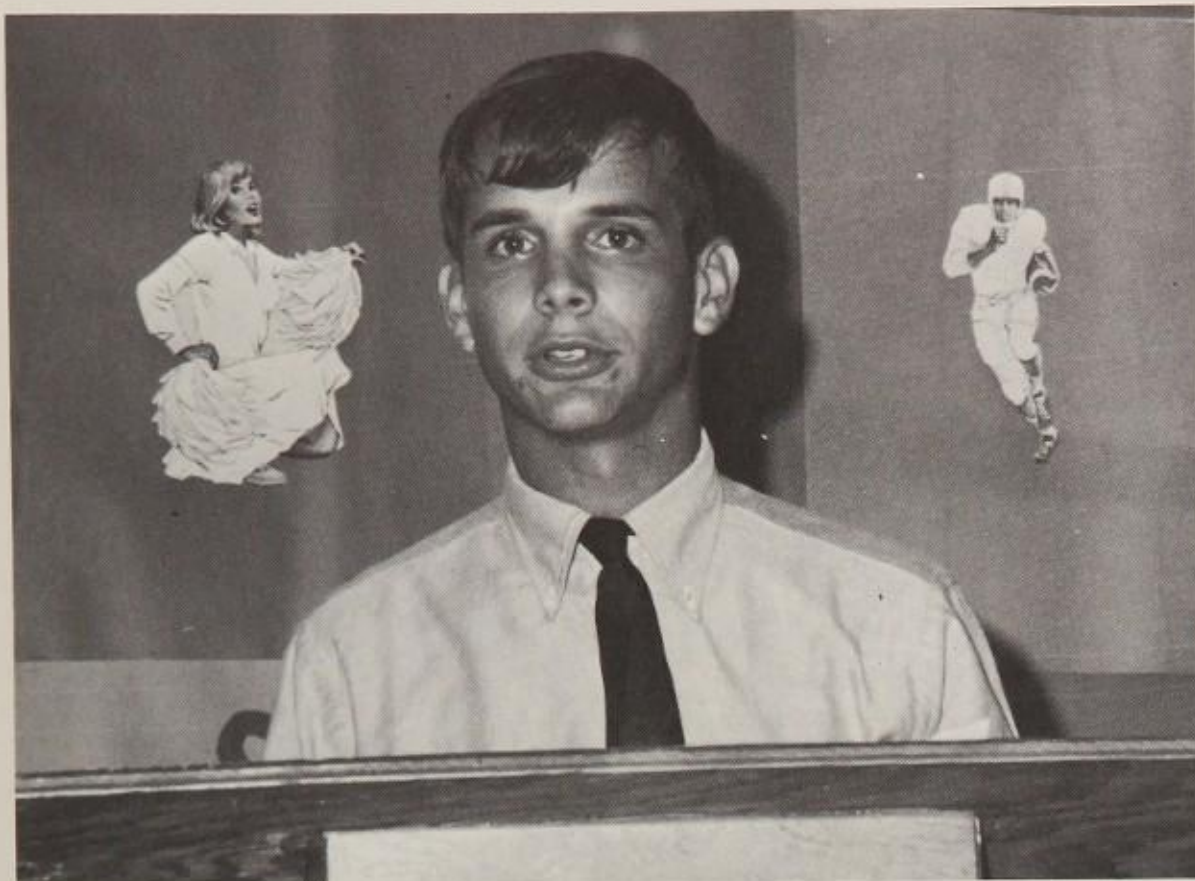

Jose Rua and Cyndy Farrel work together in their presentation.

Nancy Naar is determined to get her point across.

N.F.L. Goes to Atlanta

Murray Perch addresses the club.

N.F.L., the National Forensic League, provides Southwest students with the opportunity to meet new people, travel, and develop their skills of debate. The club, which is planning to visit Emory University, is raising money for the trip by working at the swap meet and having car washes. The president is Bob Zachritz, who, along with Jose Rua, vice-president, Nancy Naar, finance chairman, and Paul Erwin, recording chairman, is scheduling debates for Saturday afternoons.

Meetings of the N.F.L. are held at Southwest every other Thursday night, and each of the debating members is working to attain his goal of twenty-five points. The points are given for their achievements in debate. Mrs. Karen Wilson is sponsor of the club

Wayne Hinnent will wash cars if it will get him to Georgia.

Paul Erwin . . . recording chairman.

Troope 336 Presents "The Miracle Worker"

Craig Houghton and Ivy Cream pose dramatically.

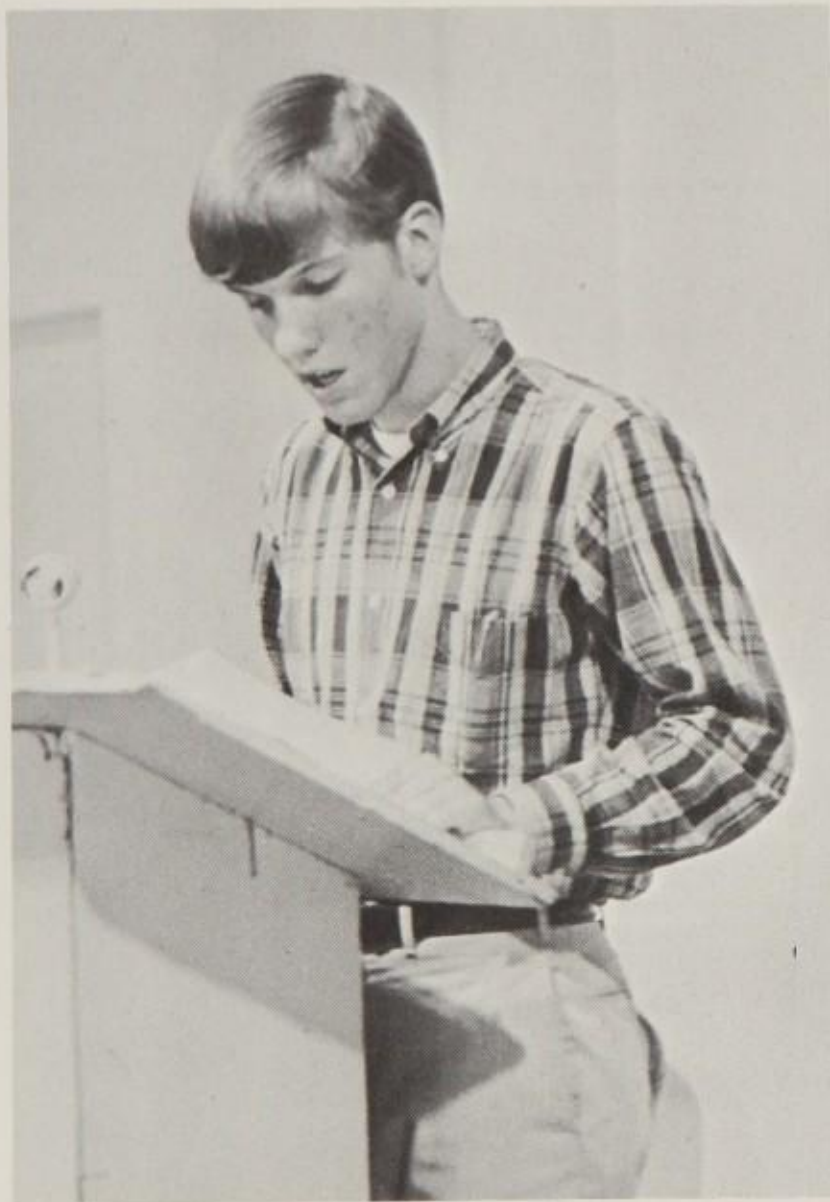

Dramatists at Southwest can join Thespian Troupe 336 if they earn ten or more points working in play productions. These members then perform at the CTA Towers, for retired teachers, with excerpts from their big production, "The Miracle Worker." Members give a performance also to students at Miami Springs Jr. High.

With senior Jim Sampson as president, the officers help the thespians to combine their talents and abilities. Other officers are: Ron Williamson, vice-president; Linda Morrison, secretary; Pam Butterbrodt, treasurer; Debbie Ricci, scribe; and Patrice Surface, historian.

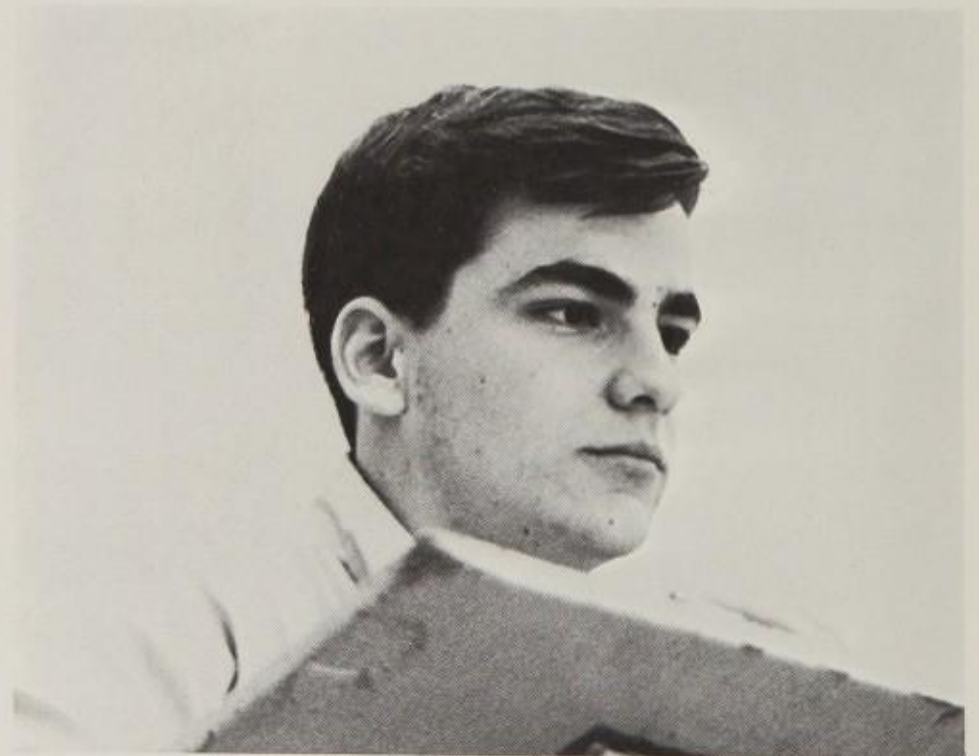

Sponsor of Thespians is Mr. James Randolph, who is later replaced by his intern, Mr. Jim Ames.

The final show presented by the dramatists is in February. This is a combination of three plays, entitled "A Night of One-Acts."

President Jim Sampson begins to conduct his meeting.

Vice President Ron Williamson ponders on a dramatic thought.

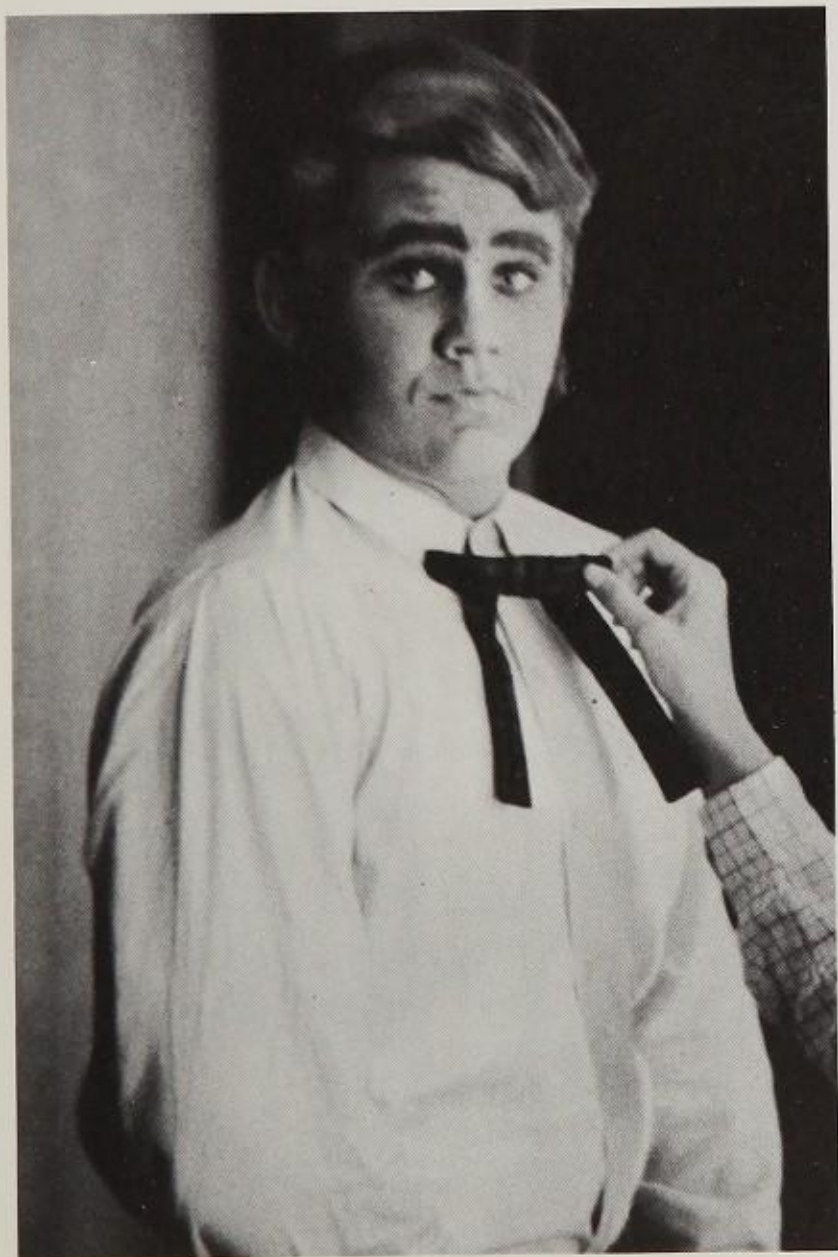

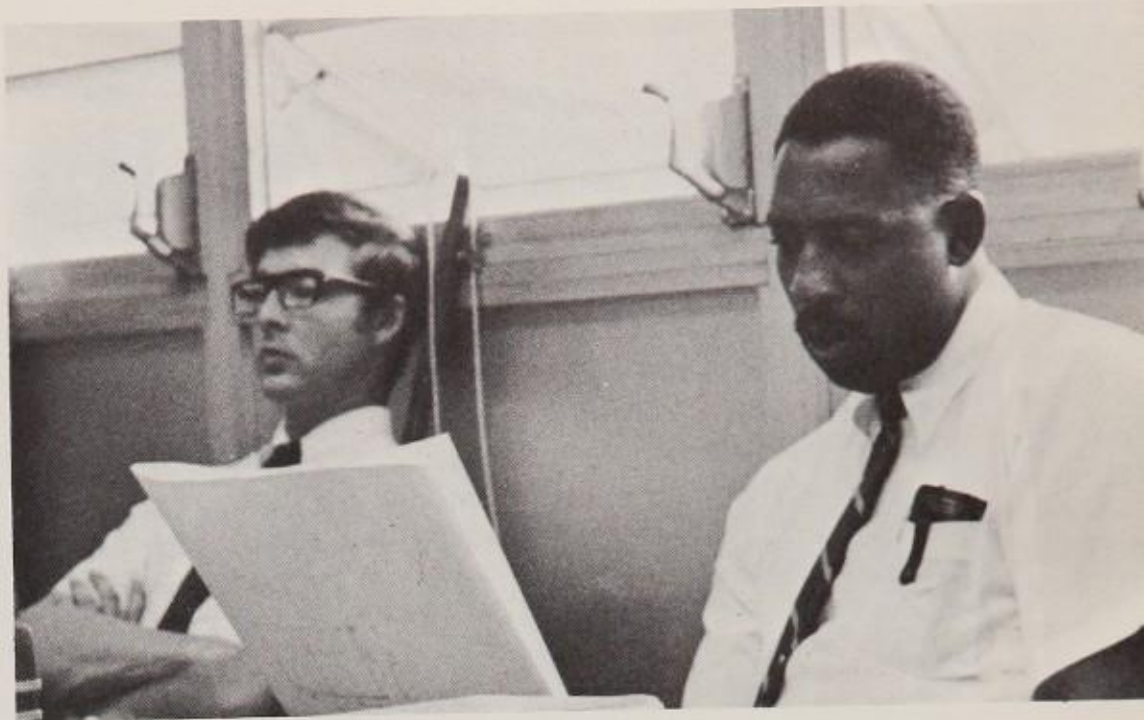

Thespians inductees take their oath.

Secretary Linda Morrison always has a smile on her face.

Mr. Randolph and Mr. Ames talk about The Miracle Worker.

Flora Jenkins fixes her wig before she makes her entrance.

Norman Ham is sure surprised by an Aquila photographer.

Quill and Scroll Offer Awards for Essays

Southwest students who excel in journalism can qualify for membership in the Southwest chapter of Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. Glenn Majeski is president. Vice-president is Lazelle Emminizer; secretary is Jan Blount; and treasurer is Alice Henretig. Sponsor is Mrs. Straats.

Quill and Scroll members inform the school of National Newspaper Week by putting up a display in the lobby. They also offer awards for special essays on communication. Nine members will be inducted into the club this year.

Quill and Scroll Officers are proud to be part of the Lancer and Aquila Staffs.

Sue Moore and Nancy Salesman discuss future plans.

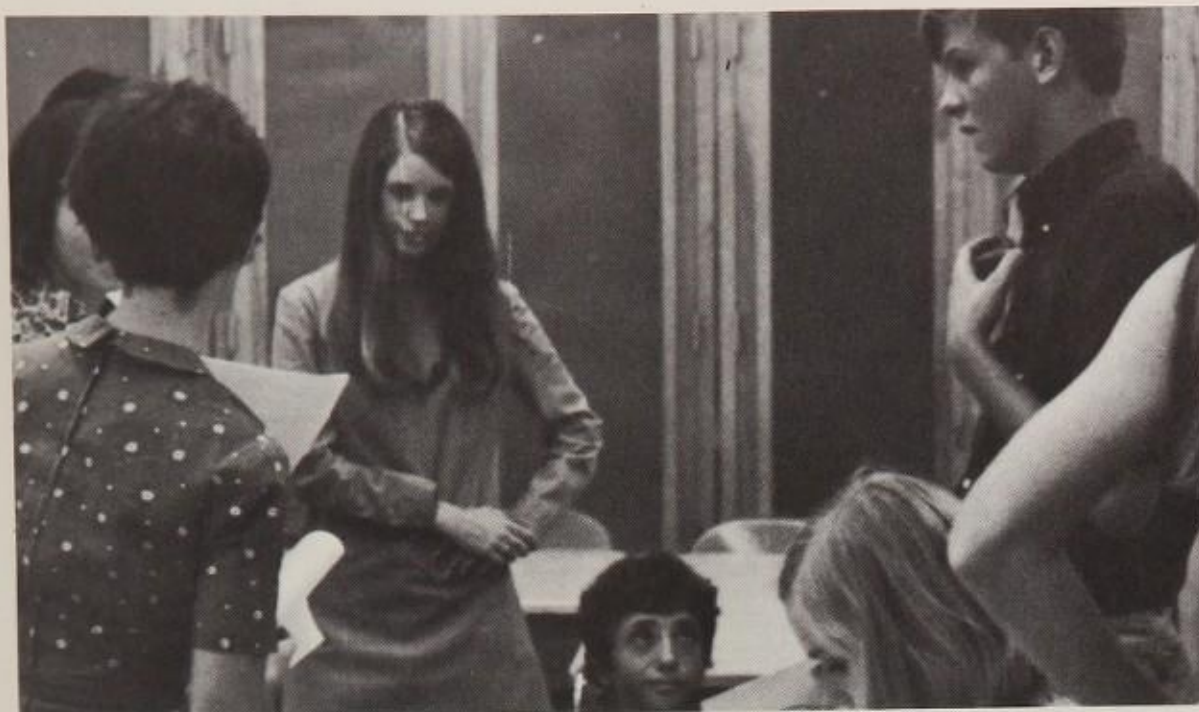

Members of Quill and Scroll take a #3 break to pose for Aquila photographers.

Art Honor Display Their Work at Burdines

Members display their work at meeting.

Art Honor Society serves Southwest by helping artistic students develop their talents. Because of the opportunity, many members of Art Honor win awards in the National Junior Scholastic Art Awards, and their art works are on display at the downtown Burdines store.

Some projects include raising money to buy steps for students coming out of the rear door of the new art wing, and furnishing the playroom at Variety Children's Hospital with art supplies. Members also teach the children to use the supplies.

Officers are: Christine Curtis, president; Fred Bugg, vice-president; Diane Marks, secretary; and Debbie Cochran, treasurer. Miss Violette is sponsor of Art Honor at Southwest.

Barbara Richardson has a look of amazement.

Miss Violette and Mr. Crawford—Sponsors

Talented Pat Tharp works on her project.

F.B.L.A. Promotes Business Activities

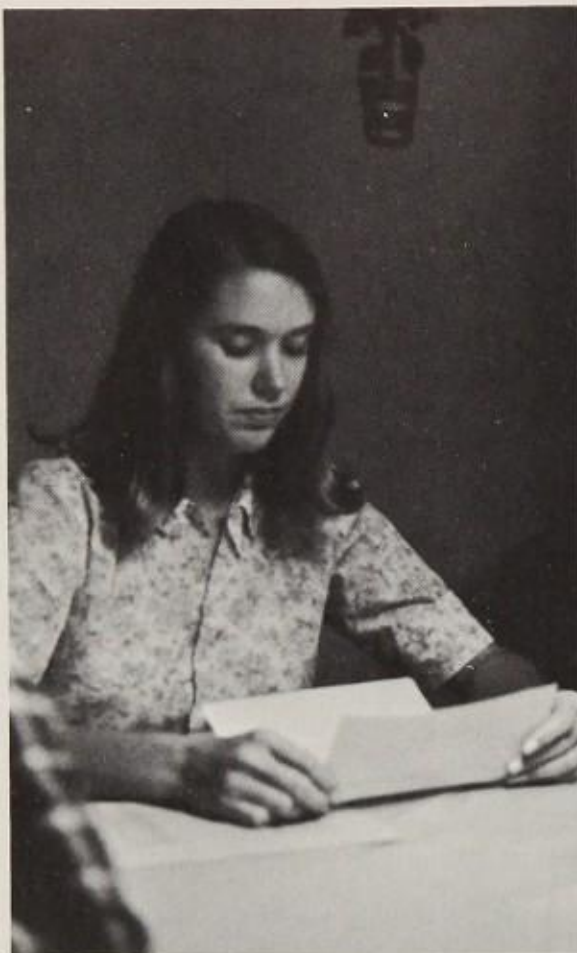

FBLA is Future Business Leaders of America. This is an honorary club designed to promote interest in business activities.

Southwest's FBLA has bake sales and car washes to raise money for the school's business department.

Mr. Elmer Debrei is sponsor. Karen Frey is president. Other officers are: Paula Ringstrom, vice-president; Janice McGrath, secretary; and Joyce King, treasurer.

Part of FBLA's service to its members is to teach them more about the economics and values of a life in the business world.

Karen Frey—President

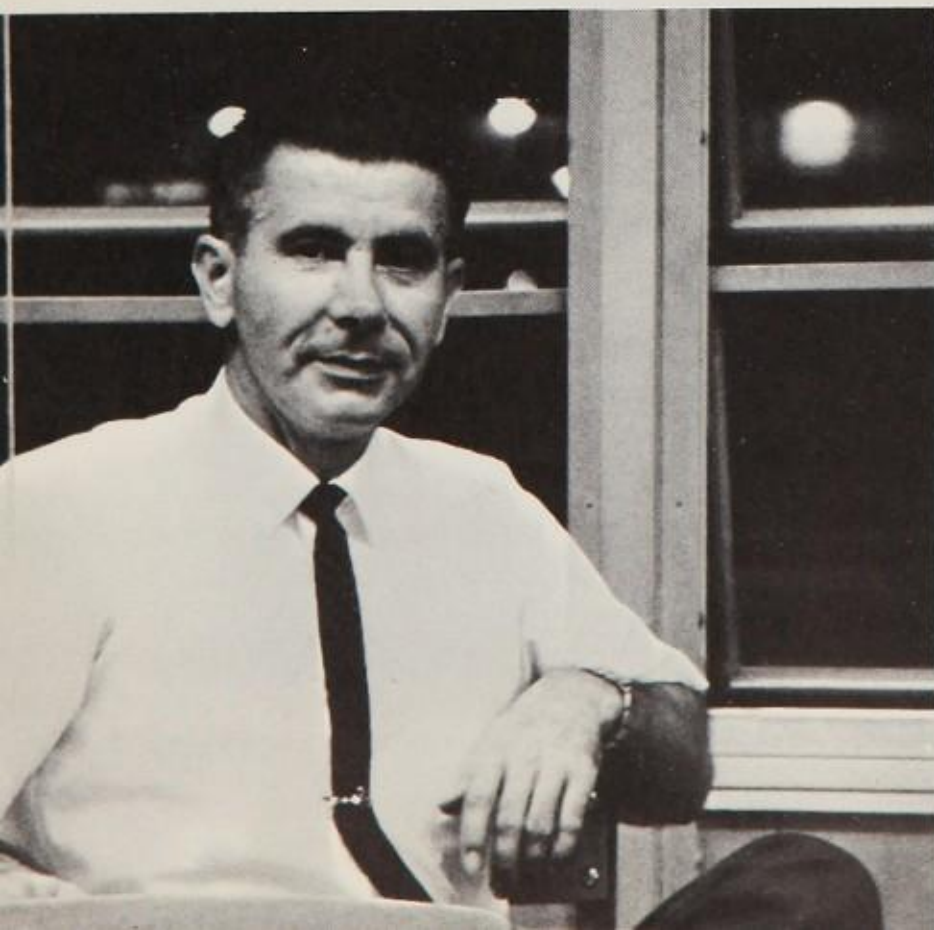

Joyce King serves as Treasurer.

Bill Bain contemplates his future job.

Mr. Elmer Debrei—Sponsor

Paula Ringstrom has an amusing thought.

Tri-M Welcomes All Music Students

Sherry Ochrach and Joan Ziegler are amused at the presidents lectures.

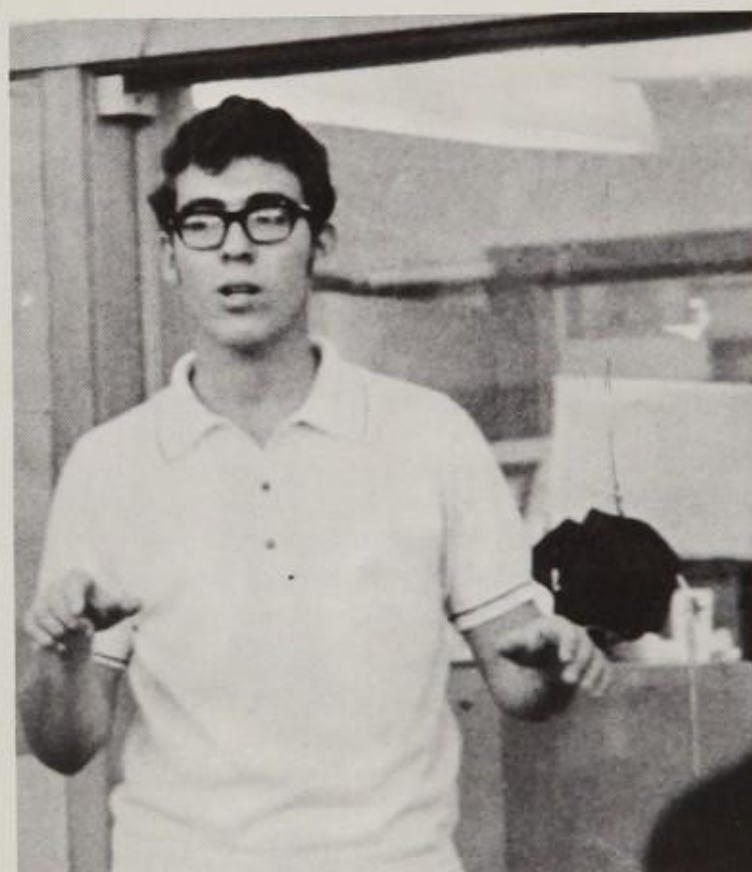

Musically-inclined students have an opportunity to use their talents as members of Tri-M, Modern Music Masters. Open to all music students, the club requires an A average in music and an overall B average in other subjects.

1968-69 Tri-M officers are: Steve Parsons, president; Gary Fagin, vice-president; and sergeant-at-arms, Alan Hudson. Others include: Sheila Morico, recording secretary; Austin Bridges, treasurer; Andrea Portnoy, parliamentarian; and Migsy Smith, historian.

Tri-M students help to organize other Tri-M clubs in local schools.

Terry West and Bill Brown enjoy the informality of their meetings.

Steve Parsons conducts his meetings in an orderly fashion.

Here we are Seniors at last. We know each other pretty well. We've been together for three long years now and the time of graduation announcements and caps and gowns is upon us. It is a good time for looking back and remembering. I'd like to share some of my memories with you:

There's not much I remember from my Sophomore year except the bewilderment of that first day and the rush and excitement of new faces and also always looking up to Seniors.

From Junior year I remember selling magazines getting dream pets
and working on decorations for the Junior/Senior Prom.

And from this year come a multitude of memories.
I remember confetti blowing on a windy football field in October and tearfully singing the Alma-Mater in the deserted stands.

I remember the confusion of Purple and White up on the stage at pep rallies and the fun of wearing purple bows on spirit day.

I remember the festivities of Homecoming
David Gamwell's ugly legs and Thanes doing the can-can

I remember Carrie Cleland's smile as she walked down the aisle as queen and Charlie Faidley and his terrific rocket float.

Every time I look at the cafeteria I remember those long days last summer working on it and I think of Nancey Balkany and that rare mind of hers that never stops working and the stamina and enthusiasm she has to get things done.

I remember the Student Council selling Experience '69 calendars, sanding and varnishing seats in the auditorium and giving us, for a few precious days, music in the cafeteria.

From Christmas I remember the tree in the lobby and the chorus singing carols in the halls.
I remember the fun of basketball games, wrestling matches and track meets.

I remember the Senior Banquet
soc-hops at The Scene
three years of doing homework on Sunday nights and the year the FHA roses didn't get here till May.
I also remember people:

Elliot Tarabour's hats

Jerry Hood's pants

Tommy McPherson's jokes and Clarissa Glicksman's laughter.

But most of all I'll always remember the spirit that is Southwest. The atmosphere of many different groups and many different types of people living and learning and laughing together.
it's going to be hard to say goodbye.
